Director, Indian Law Institute, Delhi

The exceptional strength of legal fraternity brings together, from around the nation, variety of exceptionally brilliant individuals of the society, lived experiences, interests, ambitions, approaches, methodologies, and perspectives. The character and activities of the societies have changed over the years wherein larger and older legal societies have traditionally been gearing the smaller ones to participate in activities. These meetings afford the society's members several opportunities to meet with one another to discuss legal education and various aspects of the legal profession. It enhances the community and furthers energy to explore, innovate and pursue the chief standards of law and justice.

I congratulate the School of Law of the Ideal Institute of Management and Technology for building a legally strengthened and academically sound bridge by organizing the Rakesh Aggarwal Memorial National Law Conference in the hybrid medium during the most historical change ever on the topic 'Reshaping the World through Sustainability: Emerging Trends Impacting Development'. Sustainability has become a topic of discussion in recent years, with international programmes, such as the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), the Paris Climate Agreement and the Global Sustainable Initiative (GSI). The present environment is aiding to the already existing craving for sustainability at regional, national and global levels, compelling and infusing organisations with the moral authority to reset and reshape the world.

The genuine efforts put by the Management of the Institute, Chairperson Smt. Sudha Aggarwal and Secretary-General Sh. Vineet Aggarwal along with the Director of the Institute, Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma and the Vice-Principal of the School of Law, Dr. Arun Gupta, in wonderfully bringing together the diversity from all the disciplines to deliberate upon sustainability strategies is commendable. This year's theme for the Conference is 'Reshaping the World through Sustainability: Emerging Trends Impacting Development'. The theme is indeed a very pivotal topic for our future and a Conference on the same ensures that we take into notice all the key practices that are not only helping us conserve our finite resources for the future but also provide ideas for a viable alternate resource including practices that could bring a decline in the current exhaustion and usher in an era of sustainability of resources in the years to come.

We welcome all the innovative minds in Academia to share their ideas on the common platform bringing in the deliberation to answer to the circumstance at hand and the ones that may occur in the future. Best wishes for this endeavour to the team.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

RESHAPING THE WORLD THROUGH SUSTAINABILITY: EMERGING TRENDS IMPACTING DEVELOPMENT

United Nations in its report has identified climate crisis, accelerated urbanization, demographic shift, amplified individuals, economic power trends and emerging technology as six megatrends that have a lasting influence on the course of sustainable development. In addition to these, emerging trends such as Artificial Intelligence, Augmented Reality, amongst many need a trans-disciplinary scrutiny through the prism of multifarious laws in the realms of IPR, Healthcare, Employment, Environment, Corporate Laws and other legal and allied subjects.

The juxtaposition of demographical or technological development and socio-economic landscape or uses of scientific advancement in Environment such as in Zero Carbon Technology are a few examples of how multi-faceted and trans-disciplinary these issues are. Therefore, the aim of this Conference is to link a range of megatrends to one another and offer a larger picture on how these are shaped by global and national policies and affect stakeholders from a macro to the micro level.

This Conference invites discourse on these upcoming trends that have a butterfly effect on various facets of development and reformation as drivers of change while rethinking the challenges and opportunities for sustainability that lies ahead.
