Topic: Self Realisation and Stress Busting During Pandemic Era
Brief Report:Dr.Vineeta Sharma (Advisor, Webinar Series and Principal, BBA -1st Shift) was the Host for the Webinar and she started the Session with her insights about the practices followed by Brahmakumaris and role of Raj Yog in Self-realisation. Ms. Shilpa Khurana played the Brahma Kumaris Bhajan, ‘Shanti Sagar Ki Lehren’ on the Screen. After that Ms. Shailja Khosla read the Concept Note for the Session. Just after that the Hon’ble Director of the Institution read the Welcome Address of Brahma Kumari Manju Didi.It was followed by the felicitation of all the dignitaries by different Faculty Members. After the Felicitation process, Dr.Vineeta Sharma requested the Keynote Speaker to start with her topic. Manju Didi started her session with one minute silence which was basically introspective to bring everyone on the same platform to start the spiritual journey of one hour. She started by narrating the story of a young boy playing the role of Rana Pratap and connected it to the role played by all of us in our life. She discussed about the effect of anxiety, fear and stress on our life and how by understanding our connection with the Supreme Power will help us to dispel the darkness of fear and stress from our lives. If we believe that God is always there to take care of us we will not be affected by fear of the unknown.She laid emphasis on the importance of remaining happy in our lives- feeling ‘Ananda’ in all situations of life and practice appreciation (saying wah-wah for every task done by us) and even appreciating the problems. As there can be no life without problems but enhancing our inner strength will help us overcome all problems as within the problem itself lies its solution. The role of striking a balance between the FIVE Elements was also elucidated. In the end she discussed about Sahaj Raj Yog as a means for Self-Realisation. After which she introduced the participants to three basic or SaralYog Kriyas which can be practised easily by everyone. The session got an over whelming response from the audience. Honourable Director of the institute concluded the session by sharing his views about Self-Realisation and our connect with the Divine.
