Sub: - Creation of NCC Unit in Ideal Institute of Management & Technology

Respected Sir,

With references to your mail received by us on 08th October 2020 for creating NCC Unit at affiliated Institutes, it is humbly submitted that the NCC Unit couldn't be created due to the ongoing Covid-19 Pandemic and Non- Availability of students. Since, college is on offline mode now and Physical Availability of the students is accessible, there for, the College is geared-up to initiate and create the senior division units of NCC for both Boys and Girls. The list to this effect of the same is being forwarded to you for further initiation, suggestion and advice please, so as to speed-up the process of creating the N.C.C. Unit in our college

Looking forward to your Guidance and Approval please.

Thanks and Regards

AWARENESS PROGRAMME
 on the topic
PROVISIONS AND ISSUES RELATED TO CYBERCRIME in collaboration with
DISTRICT LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITY SHAHDARA, EAST & NORTH-EAST
(11th May 2022, Wednesday)
(Timing: 10:00 a.m. Onwards)

REPORT

Legal Aid Clinic, School of Law, IIMT in collaboration with District Legal Services Authority Shahdara, East and North-East conducted an Awareness Programme on the topic 'Provisions and Issues related to Cyber Crime' on 11th May 2022 at 10:00 a.m. onwards for the students of BA LLB course in the Main Auditorium of the Institute. The Programme was organized under the able guidance of Prof. (Dr.) Arun Gupta, Principal, School of Law, IIMT; on the occasion of 'National Technology Day' for celebrating Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav.

The event was graced by the august presence of the Sh. Pranat Kumar Joshi, Secretary DLSA Shahdara District, Sh. Vinik Jain, Secretary, North-East DLSA, and Ms. Saema Jamil, Secretary, East DLSA as distinguished guests

The Programme witnessed a lecture and a dialogue by the revered judges as the keynote speakers for the day. The Programme was organized with the aim to provide the students with an insightful experience and understanding of the key aspects of related laws along with the societal constraints of the present-day world.

The Programme commenced with the lighting of the lamp and felicitation of the Hon'ble speakers and dignitaries. The first session was delivered by Dr. Parikshet Sirohi, Assistant Professor, University of Delhi. He discussed the legal aspect and provisions related to Cyber Crimes. Dr. Sirohi initiated the talk by putting emphasis on the significance of data via-a-vis one's privacy. He also put forth his views on the possibility that the next World War can take place because of violations of Cyber Data. His talk geared toward various facets of Cyber Stalking, Extortion, Spoofing, Cyber Crimes, and Cyber Forensics. He also discussed various crime investigation case studies, and the session also witnessed discourse on Privacy Policies for various applications that are freely available to society at large. Dr. Sirohi advised the usage of disposable E-mail Accounts, and explained the implications of the same. He also discussed the NETIQUETTES – the network etiquette, the dos and don'ts of online communication. He apprised the gathering about various Certificate Courses offered by Universities in India. His talk concluded with the usage of security countermeasures from Adblock Plus, Dumpster, ChatSecure.org, VirusTotal.com, downtrace, and others. Dr. Sirohi concluded by cautioning the audience of the consequences and urged everyone to take precautions to safeguard against cybercrimes.

Thereafter, the second session was delivered by Inspector Sanjay Kumar, S.H.O. Cyber Police Station, Shahdara, Delhi. He explained that every citizen is living in two worlds simultaneously. One is the "REAL" world, and the other is the "VIRTUAL" world. While existing in the real world, we take all security precautions possible to remain safe and secure. In spite of knowing the laws, most of us operate otherwise. He discussed in-depth knowledge concerning different types of cybercrimes such as Access to Data without Permission, Data Theft, Damaging Computers, Denial of Access, Access to Unauthorized Persons, Identity Theft, Cyberstalking, and Cyber Terrorism. The preventive measures to be taken to safeguard oneself were also discussed at length. Thereafter, the gathering was sensitized towards the legal aspects which were eloquently taken by the Hon'ble Judge and Speakers for the day. The Awareness Programme then proceeded towards the Question-Answer Round. The round aided in furthering clarity over the concerned topic.

The concluding remarks were given by Sh. Pranat Kumar Joshi, Secretary DLSA Shahdara District. He advised to be cautious of the cousin domains (which are the deceptively similar to the domains of trusted websites and companies). He extensively addressed various possible solutions that an individual can go through for avoid online Scams. Mr. Joshi brought into light the implications and repercussions the offense of sextortion, i.e. a practice of extorting sexual favors from someone by threatening to reveal evidence of their sexual activity. He also brought to notice the improper use of Artificial Intelligence. He emphasized the need to sanitize each person's phone by revoking unnecessary permissions, uninstalling unwanted applications, and deleting sensitive information to ensure that a step is being taken to protect against the ocean of new-age cybercrimes.

Thereafter, a letter of appreciation was presented to the revered speakers and distinguished guests for their gracious presence. A formal Vote of Thanks was delivered by Ms. Prema Gulati, Sr. Assistant Professor, School of Law, IIMT.

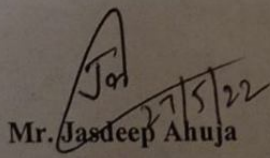

The event was attended by 138 students of BA LLB course along with all the Faculty Members of the School of Law.

CONSOLIDATED REPORT

On
Three day Para-Legal Volunteer Training Program
 Organised by
Legal Aid Clinic, School of Law, IIMT
 In collaboration with DSLSA
 On
11th, 12th AND 13th April, 2022.

Legal Aid Clinic, School of Law, IIMT in collaboration with DSLSA organized a three-day Para-Legal Volunteer Training Programme from 11th, 12th, and 13th April 2022 for the students of Law in the Main Auditorium of the institute. The Training Programme was organized under the guidance and tireless efforts of the Revered Prof. (Dr.) Arun Gupta, Principal, School of Law, IIMT for approaching the DSLSA and for the prompt execution of this program.

The Training sessions comprised of various lectures and dialogues with the Revered Judges of DSLSA and various DLSA's and each of the sessions were dedicated to legal topics of prominent value for the Para-Legal volunteers which will in turn be beneficial to them during their work as PLVs under the diverse aid programs of DSLSA.

The training program is an annual endeavor of DSLSA in collaboration with the School of Law, IIMT based on the objective of the statute i.e. to promote an inclusive legal system to ensure fair and meaningful justice to the marginalized and disadvantaged sector and the active role of the PLVs in attaining the said objective.

The three day event was conducted in the following sequence as follows:-

Day 1 Session 1 – Inaugural Session by Sh. Kanwal Jeet Arora, Member Secretary, DSLSA
Topic - Introduction to Legal Services Authorities Act and its activities & Role and Responsibilities of PLVs

The Inaugural session was taken by the Revered Judge Sh. Kanwal Jeet Arora, Member Secretary, DSLSA as a Keynote Speaker for the day on the topic 'Introduction to Legal Services Authorities Act, its activities & Role and Responsibilities of PLVs'. The session was conducted to aid the students with the insightful experience and understanding of the key aspects, historical development and on the very need of the Legal Services Authorities Act via the statute's preamble i.e. distribution of equitable justice and the viable execution of welfare provisions.

The Speaker in his well-structured lecture provided a broad outlook of the statute wherein he briefed the Composition, Powers, and Functions of various levels of legal services authorities and the working of Lok Adalats. Sir also shared the main aim and objective of the statute i.e. to promote an inclusive legal system to ensure fair and meaningful justice to the marginalized and disadvantaged sector and the role of the PLVs in attaining the said objective. He also sensitized and highlighted the need for a 'community driven drive' in the participants sharing his vast experience his free decades.

The program in its initiation started with the lighting of the lamp and felicitation of the Hon'ble Judges Sh. Kanwal Jeet Arora, Member Secretary, DSLSA, Sh. Sushant Changotra, Additional Secretary, DSLSA, Ms. Namrita Aggarwal, Special Secretary, DSLSA and Ms. Saema Jamil, Secretary East DLSA with a Shawl, Memento, and Holy Bhagwata Gita. The session was followed by a lecture on the topic "Introduction to Legal Services Authorities Act and its activities & Role and Responsibilities of PLVs" and the session was concluded by a Vote of Thanks proposed by the anchor of the session Ms. Anjali Nair, Member, Legal Aid Clinic.

Day 1 Session 2 by Mr. Sushant Changotra, Additional Secretary, DSLSA

Topic - 'Laws on Children with special emphasis on Cyber Crime'

The continuing training session comprised of a lecture and dialogue with the Judge Mr. Sushant Changotra, Additional Secretary, DSLSA as Keynote Speaker for the session on the topic 'Laws on Children with special emphasis on Cyber Crime' through the session, the participants were able to learn about the most crucial attribute while dealing and connecting with children i.e. sensitivity. The speaker shared several real-life episodes and experiences that stirred the minds of the participants and generated curiosity and interest. The speaker began the session by answering the basic questions such as who is a child, what constitutes child abuse, and its types, and also provided a broad outlook of the laws dealing with children through various illustrations and experiences which was continued with questions by the Students of Law from the speaker. Thereafter the anchor of the session Ms. Anjali Nair, Member, Legal Aid Clinic proposed a formal Vote of Thanks for the session. The session was concluded by playing the National Theme Song of the National Legal Service Authority titled 'Ek muthi aasmaan' to mark the spirit and aim of the statute.

Day 1 Session 3 by Ms. Saema Jamil, Secretary, East DLSA

Topic - 'Matrimonial Laws'

The Training session comprised of lecture and dialogue with the Revered Judge Ms. Saema Jamil, Secretary, East DLSA as a keynote speaker for the day on the topic "Matrimonial Laws". The session aimed at making the students understand about the view taken by Judiciary and other Governmental Authorities towards the institution of Marriage and also about the manner in which such conflicts are handled in the court of law with an overview of the various procedural requirements that are often not covered within the substantive domain of law. The session even went into the domain of most common conflicts that are persistent in any family and provided a pan-understanding about the technicalities of the matrimonial laws. The session was followed by the presentation of Memento to keynote speaker for the day and a vote of thanks by Ms. Prerna Gulati, Sr. Assistant Professor, IIMT for the gracious presence and deliverance on the very topic.

Day 1 Session 4 by Ms. Neeti Suri Mishra, Secretary, Central DLSA

Topic - "Law relating to Juveniles"

The final session for the inaugural day comprised of lecture with the Revered Judge Ms. Neeti Suri Mishra, Secretary, Central DLSA on the topic "Law Relating to Juveniles". The session involved an insightful understanding on the vivid aspects of children in conflict with law especially focusing upon the laws governing the same in addition to the recent amendments made in the law. The session involved a lot of brainstorming with the volunteers in making an attempt to understand the technicalities of the said law and role played the administration in easier implementation of the same. NUKKAD NATTA

SEXUAL VIOLENCE IN PUBLIC SPACES

RIGHTS OF MAINTENANCE AND WELFARE OF PARENTS AND SENIOR CITIZENS

AT

PARPARGANJ AND SHRESTH VIHAR

8th MARCH 2022

REPORT

Legal Aid Clinic, School of Law, IIMT with DLSA (Shahdara) jointly organized a Nukkad Natak. It was conducted on the occasion of International Women Day i.e, on 8th March, 2022 at Patparganj Village and Shresth Vihar. The object behind these kind of program was to initiate an awareness campaign with respect to the provision of free legal aid in common people .

The Programme was organized under the guidance and tireless efforts of the Revered Prof. (Dr.) Arun Gupta, Principal, School of Law, IIMT with DLSA and for the prompt execution of this program. The objective of the Nukkad Natak is to promote an inclusive legal system to ensure fair and meaningful justice to the marginalized and disadvantaged sector .

As a part of this program and after practicing for a week the volunteers from ideal Institute of Management and Technology and School of Law performed a street play at two different locations namely, Patparganj Village and Shresth Vihar.

The students were accompanied to the locations by Prof. (Dr.) Hemlata Sharma (Vice Principal, School of Law) and Mr Jasdeep Singh (In charge Legal Aid Clinic, School of law) . The subject of the play was Sexual violence in public spaces in day to day lives.

Through their performance, the students aimed to highlight the need to increase reporting of sexual harassment which more often unreported. Moreover some provisions of The Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007 were also touched by the students through the street play in order to make them also aware about their rights provided, regarding their financial security, welfare and protection of senior citizens.

The Event marked success by getting gaze of numerous individuals of different social economic backgrounds who stopped and watched the street play and asked many queries regarding the subject despite of their language barrier.

At last the volunteers surveyed around 25 people and observed that very few people aware about their fundamental rights and duties and also unaware about the presence of DLSA. The PLV's then taught the objective of DLSA and their Toll free number of i.e., 1516 and about their office at 35 and 35 A in Karkardooma District Court, New Delhi. Queries and problems of people were heard and DLSA forms were filled by the volunteers with the complete details of people who seek legal help so that they can be approached by DLSA.
