7.1.11 COMMEMORATION OF NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL DAYS, EVENTS AND FESTIVALS

With an objective of keeping the Institute balanced during the academic year, the national and international days, events and festivals were feverously celebrated. The commemorations were witnessed in the form of Webinars, Workshops and Expert Lectures, ranging from organization of various events on Republic Day, Independence Day, International Literacy Day, International Yoga Day, International Women's Day, National Teacher's Day, and the like, to informative lectures on various themes. The Institute has been at the forefront in both marking important days and making everyday life special for the members of the community. Paying special attention to the context and needs of the diversified situations, the Institute is continuously ensuring the organization of the events in the online, offline as well as the hybrid modes. Apart from internally organized events, the Institute during the year associated with the Election Commission of India for commemoration of the National Voters' Day. Each and every event organized is concluded with a patriotic song aiding in awakening the feeling of oneness and brotherhood in the audience. The events held are also meticulously publicized on the Institute's Social Media for generating awareness and sensitization of the same in the society at large.
