REPORT

On

Topic - "Increasing Environmental Pollution: Challenges and Solutions"

Ideal Institute of Management and Technology organized the Rakesh Aggarwal Memorial National Law Conference on January 19, 2019, focusing on the topic "Increasing Environment Pollution: Challenges and Solutions." Shri. Sanjay Upadhyay, Vice President of NGT Bar Association, New Delhi, graced the occasion as the chief guest. The event saw the presence of esteemed guests, including Prof. Rajeev Khanna, former Dean and Head of the Faculty of Law, and Prof. Thomas E. Nanney from the University of Missouri, U.S.A., who chaired the technical sessions.

A total of 69 papers were received for the conference, with 26 presenters attending and presenting their papers. The conference also marked the release of the ninth volume of the Ideal Law Journal and Law Conference Proceedings by the eminent guests.

The objective of the law conference was to address the environmental challenges in India, considering its rapidly growing population of over 1.3 billion. Despite being one of the world's fastest-growing populations, India lags behind in environmental preservation and ecology. The conference aimed to provide a platform for discussing and proposing solutions to the pressing issue of increasing environmental pollution.

3RD INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE 2019

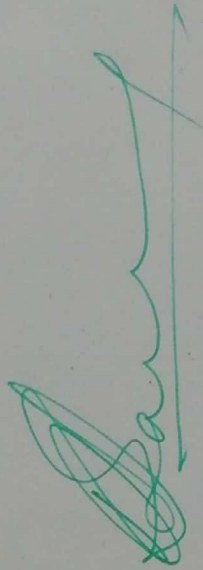

30th August 2019 (Friday)

On 30th August 2019, the Ideal Institute of Management & Technology hosted its 3RD INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE 2019, meticulously organized under the esteemed banner of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The conference, themed "Challenges & Opportunities in Digital Era: Management & IT Practices," drew a remarkable response, attracting prominent researchers and academicians from across the globe. Following an exhaustive peer-review process, a curated selection of 36 scholarly papers and an array of insightful posters were chosen for presentation, reflecting the event's academic rigor and relevance.

The inaugural session, a beacon of the conference's grandeur, commenced promptly at 10:00 AM, witnessing an enthusiastic participation with over 70 attendees congregating by 9:45 AM. Ms. Shailja Khosla adeptly anchored the session, while Ms. Seema Nath Jain and Prof.(Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma extended heartfelt welcome and acknowledgment. The spotlight of the session, however, shone brightly on the esteemed Chief Guest, Prof. (Dr.) Amarendra Pani, Joint Director, Research, Association of Indian Universities, India.

Further enriching the academic tapestry, a curated Poster Gallery unveiled student perspectives on the conference's thematic nucleus. Mr. Satpal Arora's soulful rendition of Saraswati Vandana imbued the event with a spiritual fervor, culminating in a resonant Patriotic Song that encapsulated the conference's essence of unity, progress, and scholarly excellence. In summation, the inaugural session not only established a formidable academic benchmark but also paved an auspicious path for ensuing sessions poised for intellectual exploration and collaborative enlightenment.

WORKSHOP

Advocacy Skills and Legal Research Methodology

(18th November, 2019)

Ideal Law Society of the Ideal Institute of Management and Technology under the aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) organized a workshop on “Advocacy Skills and Legal Research Methodology” for the final year students of the School of Law.

Speakers: Prof. (Dr.) T.P.S. Rathore, Principal, School of Law

Dr. Arun Gupta, Vice-Principal, School of Law

Prof. (Dr.) T.P.S. Rathore, Principal, School of Law started the workshop by explaining the importance of ‘Legal Research Methodology’. If you are a lawyer, a law student or even someone working in a law office, chances are you hear the term ‘legal research’ on a daily basis. Contrary to layman belief, it is not limited to finding the law. It is the analyzing of the information that is at one’s disposal, that is, finding, understanding and applying of law. Be it legislation, case laws or opinions of the higher courts; legal professionals need to be thorough with the current laws, the practices and the procedures, to be able to fully and efficiently cater to the interests of a client. Relevant scientific knowledge, if any, business practices, and any technical aspects involved in the case, for example, regarding the environment or construction engineering etc., have to be studied and understood. In short, developing a holistic picture of the matter at hand is at the centre of carrying out legal research that is genuinely fruitful. The purpose of such research spans from constructing the arguments a lawyer needs to forward in a court of law to the documents she/he needs to study for a due diligence exercise required to be conducted prior to a transaction. The speaker encouraged the students by making the students understand that if there is one skill that is primary to the practice of law, it is legal research, and that is irrespective of the kind of role one chooses to undertake – whether one is a practicing advocate, a corporate lawyer or a paralegal. In fact, it would not be an exaggeration to say that it is indeed the founding stone on which the whole premise of the legal profession is built. He guided the students for the thesis that they will be working on in their next semester. He wished them best for their future.

Dr. Arun Gupta, Vice-Principal threw light on the fact that an advocate's duty is as important as that of a Judge. Advocates have a large responsibility towards the society. A client's relationship with his/her advocate is underlined by utmost trust. An advocate is expected to act with utmost sincerity and respect. In all professional functions, an advocate should be diligent and his conduct should conform to the requirements of the law by which an advocate plays a vital role in the preservation of society and justice system. An advocate is under an obligation to uphold the rule of law and ensure that the public justice system is enabled to function at its full potential. Any violation of the principles of professional ethics by an advocate is as unfortunate as is unacceptable. Ignoring even a minor violation/misconduct militates against the fundamental foundation of the public justice system. An advocate should be dignified in his dealings to the Court, to his fellow lawyers and to the litigants. He should have integrity in abundance and should never do anything that erodes his credibility. He has a duty to enlighten and encourage the juniors in the profession. An ideal advocate should believe that the legal profession has an element of service also and associate with legal service activities. Most importantly, he should faithfully abide by the standards of professional conduct and etiquette prescribed by the Bar Council of India in Chapter II, Part VI of the Bar Council of India Rules.

Seminar On

“Relevance of Lower Judiciary in Constitutionalism”

On 1st November, 2019

The Ideal Training & Placement Cell of Ideal Institute of Management and Technology, affiliated to GGSIPU organized a Seminar under the aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell on “Relevance of Lower Judiciary in Constitutionalism” was held on 1st November, 2019 for 4th and 5th year BA.LL.B students at IIMT. Speaker of the day was Mr. Pruthvi Raj N.K., Founder Director, Pruthvi Law Classes.

The aim for this Seminar was to enrich the students about the Relevance of Lower Judiciary in Constitutionalism. The organizing team of the Seminar was comprised of Dr. Arun Gupta, Vice Principal, Dr. Hemlata Sharma, Associate Professor, Mr. Jasdeep Singh, Assistant Professor. The Seminar was for two hours which was attended by 104 students. The response received from the students was overwhelming and affirmative.

The session began with the Felicitation of the speaker Mr. Pruthvi Raj N.K. by Prof. (Dr.) T.P.S Rathore, Principal School of Law, IIMT. Speaking on the occasion Mr. Prithvi, told about the relevance of lower Judiciary in constitutionalism. He enlightened with statistics and knowledge of the role plays by Judiciary in implementation of Constitution. Constitutionalism refers to when we put and implement Constitution in our day-to-day lives. He gave example that when we exercise our right to speech and expression under Article 19(1)(a) we have certain restrictions as well, we may speak anything but we cannot record anything which may lead to sedition or any outrage in the country.

Comparing the judiciary and law firms as a career, he defined that the law firms restrict to a certain field. For example if a person deals with mergers and acquisition then he won't be able to deal with criminal law as effectively as a litigating lawyer would be able to do. He stated that it's the best part of law to pursue litigation at least few years of your life because litigating lawyer is one who never retires.

While describing the role of Judge, he told that it is not necessary that from the first day they are exposed to all the laws even he or she may be topper. There may be a possibility that for one to two years only deal with Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act. Being a Judge provides us with exposure to law, further it's a assured government job, hence it provides the security one needs for the future.

One attempt Principle. This principle was laid down by Mr. Prithvi which means that one should give attempt to judiciary only once and it's not worth to second attempt. This is because the seniority decreases day by day and it won't be sensible to wait for years preparing for judiciary. Comparing the preparation of judiciary with civil services he further told us that in judicial exams they only test the bare act language, however in civil services exam they test from history to current affairs which might not be more appealing to many students.

It was ended up to be a brainstorming session. Students were made aware about the Relevance of Lower Judiciary in Constitutionalism. The students learnt about the difference of working in law firms, litigation and Judiciary.

Prof. Thomas E. Nanney 'Of Counsel' with RMO LLP and leads the firm's Kansas City office. In addition to his role with RMO, he serves as a Visiting Associate Professor at the University of Missouri – Kansas City School of Law. He is also an Adjunct Professor to Faculty of Law at SGT University and Co-Coach for Jessup International Law Moot Court Team, Inter-American Human Rights Moot Court Team, and International Commercial Arbitration Moot.

The speaker addressed the audience about the prospects of pursuing 'LLM' in the United States of America. He apprised the audience about the fact that the universities have a specifically designed program curriculum and the main agenda for the same is to prepare foreign lawyers for the challenge of global practice. The students are also guaranteed post-graduation practical experience through the American Law Internship Program. You will have gained unique insight into the "mindset" of US lawyers and others trained in the common law. You will have the necessary perspective to work across borders, and transact with lawyers from diverse traditions and backgrounds. He wished the students best for all their future endeavors.

Prof. Rajiv Khanna, Former Dean, Faculty of Law, Delhi University. He started teaching in the Faculty of Law in 1973. He has guided many Ph.D. scholars including scholars of South Korea. He has written extensively on Labor Relations Law and Consumer Protection Laws and some of his articles have been published in the Journal of the Indian Law Schools as well as foreign Journals. He was also the Coordinator, IPR Chair, Delhi University (under MHRD). He was also a visiting Prof. at Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Seoul, South Korea, where he was specially invited for setting up their Law School.

The speaker started the session by quoting the definition given by The Law Commission of India, 'Legal education as a science which imparts to students knowledge of certain principles and provisions of law to enable them to enter the legal profession'. He said that Law, legal education and development have become inter-related concepts in modern developing countries. The main function of the legal education is to produce lawyers with social vision. However, in modern times legal education should not only produce lawyers, it should be regarded as a legal instrument for social design. He further quoted Justice Krishna Iyer, "Profession of law is a noble calling and the members of the Legal profession occupy a very high status." He made the students understand that law is the foundation of every society and it develops abiding citizens, lawyers, academicians and aspiring judges.

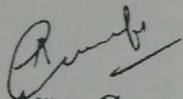

The speaker discussed the history of legal education in our nation which can be traced back to ancient period, where the kings and princes were given teachings about dharma and nyaya. Then the concept of legal representatives came into existence during mughal period. Legal education was in existence even before Indian independence as many of our freedom fighters are from legal background. But, it gained its significance only in post-independence period. Law courses are offered for a term of three years in some traditional universities but it can be pursued only after getting a degree. Later, introduction of five years law courses and establishment of National Law University at Bangalore made legal education quite popular in twenty first century.

Aim of Legal Education was discussed at length with the students wherein the speaker explained that the same is to train students for legal profession; to educate them to solve the individual client's problems as well as to solve the society's problems in which he lives; to provide a centre where scholars might contribute to the understanding of the law and participate in their growth and improvement; to inculcate them with operative legal rules and to provide them adequate experience to apply these rules and to point the right road for future development. With these words the speaker concluded the session and wished the students for their great future ahead.

SEMINAR
(29th January, 2020)

The Internal Complaints Committee of the Ideal Institute of Management and Technology under the aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) organized a Seminar on 'Gender Sensitization and Awareness of Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace Place Act, 2013' for the students, Faculty Members and non-teaching staff.

In compliance with the instructions of National Commission for women and guidelines issued in implementation of the directives of Hon'ble Supreme Court's Judgment dated 13th August, 1997 in the case of Vishakha and others vs. State of Rajasthan and Others on the subject of sexual harassment of women at workplace, the institute has duly constituted a Complaint Committee for considering complaints of sexual harassment of women working in the institute.

The speaker for the day was Prof. (Dr.) Ritu Gupta, Professor, National Law University, Delhi, who is also a member of the Internal Complaints Committee of the institute.

The speaker apprised the students with the initiative taken by the government on the topic of 'Gender Sensitization' wherein she started by telling the role of The National Council of Educational Research and Training (NCERT) who has developed syllabus and textbooks across the subjects to promote gender sensitization in the school curriculum. The text books at all stages of school education prioritize gender sensitization in designing of activities/exercises. Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) has also prepared guidelines for gender sensitivity in textbooks and textual material, including question papers. The Government of India has already enacted a number of legislations to prevent exploitation/ harassment of women and to address the issues of discrimination and gender disparity. These include 'The Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education (RTE) Act, 2009', 'The Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 2013', 'The Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005', 'The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961', 'The Indecent Representation of Women (Prohibition) Act, 1986', 'The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013'; 'The Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006', 'The Equal Remuneration Act, 1976', 'The Maternity Benefit (Amendment) Act, 2017' and the 73rd - 74th Amendment of the Constitution mandating 33% reservation for women in the local governance. The Criminal Law (Amendment), Act 2013 has been enacted making the punishment more stringent for offences like rape, sexual assaults, etc.

The Government of India is implementing various schemes/ programmes to overcome gender disparity and provide equal status to women in the country. The schemes being implemented by Ministry of Women and Child Development for welfare of women are

- i. Beti Bacho Beti Padhao (BBBP) to improve the Child Sex Ratio and enabling education for the girl children,
- ii. Swadhar Greh Scheme to provide relief and rehabilitation to destitute women and women in distress,
- iii. Ujjawala a Comprehensive Scheme for prevention of trafficking and rescue, rehabilitation and re-integration of victims of trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation,
- iv. Rashtriya Mahila Kosh (RMK) to provide loan to poor women through Intermediary Microfinancing Organisations (IMOs), Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) to promote their socio-economic development,
- v. Working Women Hostels (WWH) for ensuring safe accommodation for women working away from their place of residence.

Apart from the above, she threw light on the Ministry of Women and Child Development who has been implementing the scheme of 'One Stop Centre' to provide integrated support and assistance to women affected by violence, scheme for 'Universalisation of Women Helpline' intended to provide 24 hours immediate and emergency response to women affected by violence and scheme of 'Mahila Police Volunteers' in which MPVs act as a link between police and community and help women in distress.

Further, the speaker discussed about the programmes conducted by the Ministry of Women and Child Development in collaboration with National Gender Centre (NGC), Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration (LBSNAA), Mussoorie on Gender Sensitization for the officers including District Magistrates.

Then the speaker went on discussing the 'Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace Act, 2013 in detail wherein she started with how the guidelines given by the hon'ble Supreme Court in the Vishakha's Case has helped in enactment of The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013. The Act was enacted with the objective to provide protection against sexual harassment of women at workplace and for the prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment and for matter connected therewith or incidental thereto. It defines sexual harassment as unwelcome acts or behavior (whether directly or by implication) namely, physical contact and advances, a demand or request for sexual favors, making sexually colored remarks, showing pornography, any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature. Any act of unwelcome and sexual nature shall be considered as sexual harassment.

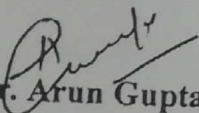

The speaker informed the students that an aggrieved woman can file a written complaint to ICC from three months from the date of the incident and in case of series of such incidents within three months from the last such incident. However, any delay in filing the complaint can be condoned by the committee upto further three months. In case of physical or mental incapability of the aggrieved woman, her legal heirs or such other person as described in Rule 6 of The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Rules, 2013 may make a complaint. On receiving the complaint the committee, before initiating an inquiry, may take steps to settle the matter between her and the respondent through conciliation and when a settlement is arrived no further inquiry is conducted. If the conciliation fails or any term of the settlement arrived at has not been complied with by the respondent, the committee shall proceed further with the inquiry. In case of filing of false or malicious complaint or false evidence the committee may recommend to the employer or District Officer to take action in accordance with the provisions of service rules or where no such service rules exist, in such manner as prescribed in Rule 10 of the Rules.

It was an enriching session for the students.

(Timings – 2.00 pm – 5.00pm)

Topic: Changing Facets of Contemporary Issues for Promoting World class Research & Innovations in Law, Management & IT

Faculty development program (FDP) is a tool for fostering knowledge and professional skills of faculty members in order to improve their performance in education, research and administration as well as augmenting organizational capacities and culture. Such programmes not only helps the faculty members in augmenting their Instructional capabilities in contemporary educational pedagogy but also in their Professional development with better understanding of professional responsibilities as educators, researchers and administrators as well as in the Organizational development with respect to the requirements and main concerns of an institution. FDPs are also useful for Career and Personal development of the faculty members which emphasizes upon life planning, interpersonal and communication skills of faculty members.

Current pandemic situation due to spread of Covid-19 has put everything under lockdown and all the institution are closed but the learning process cannot stop as the Continuing learning is the backbone of education sector and no virus can stop the willing learners.

In the same learning process Ideal Institute of Management and Technology organised One Week online Faculty Development Programme from Monday, 25th May 2020 to Sunday, 31st May, 2020 using the CISCO Webex Meet App. The programme was conducted from 2.00 pm to 5.00 pm everyday during this period.

The institute received an overwhelming response from all over India and abroad as there were 250 registrations (excluding the inhouse faculty members) for the program from various institutions from different states of India and many from Saudi Arabia. 45 inhouse faculty members also registered to attend this programme.

Apart from attending the FDP, all the faculty members of the institute were assigned various duties like welcoming and felicitating the guest speakers, playing the Saraswati Vandana before each technical session, moderating the sessions, concluding remarks, proposing formal Vote of Thanks, presenting the Letters of Appreciation to the guest speakers after every technical session and handling the technical issues of online platform apart from behind the curtain efforts and deeds done by the core team of FDP, which everyone performed in an exemplary manner and made this event a grand success and appreciable. It was a great experience for everyone to perform these duties on a virtual platform.

As a mark of respect for the frontline warriors serving in this pandemic era every session was concluded with playing of a patriotic song.

The daily proceedings of FDP were scheduled in two technical sessions one from 2.00 pm to 3.15 pm and the other from 3.30 pm to 5.00 pm. However, the first day's proceedings were divided in three sessions:

Session in Brief

Speaker: Dr. Amrita Puri, Director, Optimus Center for Well Being Citizen Hospital and De-Addiction Center, Gurugram, Haryana.

Topic: 'Understanding Relationships Aids in Understanding, Measurement and Application of Self Understanding'.

Dr. Amrita Puri started the session with a brief discussion that one's genetics and upbringing accounts up to half of the level of happiness during life span and laid focus on the fact that people are miserably failing in their potential of contribution by not being able to guide through the correct mode of living to the younger generation. She introduced the audience to various ways that can aid in parenting the children suffering from anxiety by introducing them to a range of activities, such as, puzzle solving, coloring, gardening, water coloring, reading, etc.

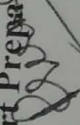

The presenter urged the participants to keep on motivating themselves by repeating that each and every soul who has taken birth is important and worthy of living. She assured that the life of a human being is a blessing in itself which has been bestowed upon us by the almighty with a worthwhile purpose which one shall continue to serve and for achieving that final destination one shall keep them nourished by treating oneself with a walk, proper sleep, reading, favorite food and movies and most importantly by paying self-attention and importance.

The spokesperson brought positivity in the session by encouraging the audience to smile for easily walking through all the confusions and bad moments in life. She laid the spotlight on the point that one should always embrace all kinds of situation with a happy face as that helps in keeping not just our soul but our relationships happier. The speaker stressed on the reality that the friends that one chooses play a key role in life as they can influence one's life and can additionally give positive direction during the period of stress. The audience were urged to control their anger by penning down their thoughts, turning emotions into actions and by indulging in productive conversations not just with people surrounding them but with oneself.

The session was attended by active listeners who raised too many questions during the session and the same were expertly answered by Dr. Amrita Puri during the question-answer round.

Session in Brief

Speaker: Dr. Ajay Kumar Behera (Assistant Regional Director, IGNOU Regional Center, Kolkata, West Bengal)

Topic: "Achievement and Aptitude tests"

Dr. Ajay Kumar Behera started the session with a brief discussion about Guidance and counselling of students. He gave example of Epic Mahabharata and Ramayana- portraying characters of Krishna, Ram and Pandavas etc. He threw light on various aspects like: guidance movement, meaning of guidance and counselling, guidance services, difference between two, assessment techniques.

He focused more regarding Achievement Test as per CBSE guidelines. He classified achievement test and popular ways of conducting them. He explained that how in some subject matters, this test is not applicable, making it its limitation and not serving purpose of assessment. According to speaker, standardized tests are time consuming as well costly affair.

Speakers next discussion was on Aptitude test, which is specific capacity and special ability to conduct either General Aptitude Test (GAT) and Specialized Aptitude Test (SAT). He presented various Aptitude test that are for Indian Conditions. Aptitude can become limitation f its related to emotional environment and not actual job environment.

Dr. Behera showed various Sample and Manuals of Aptitude test Specimen, which were quiet helpful to understand text booklet format. There was TABT answer sheet and scoring sheet (Sample) as well to elaborate different sections.

Dr. Behera Ended his session with a thank-you Note, as there was huge pool of questions, which our enthusiastic participants were eager to ask.

The session was attended by active participants who raised almost 10-15 Questions, out of which maximum questions were answered by Dr. Ajay Kumar Behera in moderation session

Session ended with quiet a praise for Guest Speaker as well as organizers for conducting such an informative session.

All ended on Happy Note.

Technical Session 1

Speaker: Prof. T.P.S Rathore
 Designation: Principal School of Law, IIMT

Topic: "Common Stressors and Spiritual Development"

Prof. Rathore initiated his speech with Spiritual development and its growth. He further discussed Competition, its growth and Development. He elaborated how fairly people have been eliminated from the market because of competition. Somehow, in today's scenario unfair competition- superior and peers' threat is also causing competition and threat of elimination. He also focused on point of Artificial Selection. He quoted few examples as well to support his statement.

Next discussion was on 7 ways to be more ethical than your competition which are path to Long term Success and Growth. Competition always creates killer Instinct, understand your true worth and difference from others. One should have calm posture and mental peace before taking any competition. One can always try Meditation as well.

Thereafter Sir, discussed about Sanskars, which are manifested by parents from very birth known as Pre-natal Sanskars. They are mental impression of oneself and are embedded in subconscious mind.

“WHATEVER YOU ARE DESTINED TO GET, YOU WILL GET”

Who am I and What is my purpose on this Earth? When we know answer of this question, that moment defines our values.

Prof. Rathore discussed Common Stressors that happen due to 3 Factors: Individual level, Family Level and Societal Level. He ended his session with discussion on Death- by Elisabeth Kubler Ross, which is due to rage, anger, depression etc. He also gave remedies to reduce stress by reducing your desires. Desires are endless and try to come out of them. Whatever is in your destiny, you will eventually get that.

Lastly, he beautifully quoted famous idiom on Karma- its beliefs and giving.

IRONY OF LIFE: YOU ACCEPT LORD KRISHNA BUT NOT WHAT HE SAYS.

Speaker: Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma
Designation: Director, IIMT

Topic: "5 Dimensions of Holistic Health"

Prof. Sharma started with 2 aspects of Health: Harmony and Balance. To have Holistic health, we need to have 5 important dimensions in our lives. He elaborated all dimensions saying that in ancient times, these all dimensions were used as a healing tool and to cure oneself.

Dimension 1: Physical Health- he said that just like eating, we should also focus on exercise, nutritional food, drinking water and having sleeping routine. This all will build your Immunity and healthy lifestyle.

"THE BODY ACHIEVES WHAT THE MIND BELIEVES"

Dimension 2: Emotional Health- accept one's Strength and weakness. If you want to connect emotionally to someone, always communicate that. Always express your emotions- Good or bad.

Dimension 3: Social Health- Human is also Animal. Interaction, skills, positive Image, and maintaining cultural harmony will build your social Health.

Dimension 4: Spiritual Health- it refers to one's values, beliefs and faith. Follow your religion, and believe in your inner science. Have knowledge of Ayurveda, Osteopathy and Unani etc.

Prof. Sharma winded up his session in very Fast forward manner with Life Learning Thank-you Note:

OUR FOOD SHOULD BE OUR MEDICINE AND

OUR MEDICINE SHOULD BE OUR FOOD

The session was attended by active participants who raised lot of questions to each of our Guest Speaker. One by one best 8 questions were taken alternatively which were answered by Prof. Sharma & Prof. Rathore in moderation session.

Sessions ended with quite a praise for the both the Speakers as well as the organizers for conducting such an informative session.

House Activity: Startup Champions
(Organized by ED Cell and Vivekananda House)
(19th March 2021)

OBJECTIVE

- To inculcate good and effective presentation skills in the students.
- To make students learn the importance of Startups after Covid 19.
- To bring out the creative talents of students.
- To make students think out of the box and come up with new ideas.

ED Cell of IMT and Vivekananda House conducted an activity on the topic 'startup champions' on 19th March 2021 through Online Platform for final year students. Total 6 teams have participated in activity. Our judge of the event was Ms Deepa Jain, Sr. Assistant Professor in Management and it was organized by Dr. Renu Yadav, Ms. Shilpa Khurana, Ms. Ayushi Gupta (Vivekananda House Incharges) along with faculty members and final year students were present for the session.

This activity was organized keeping in mind of today's Role of Startups in Making India "Atmanirbhar". Startups are the key here to revive the economy and make India a self-reliant country. Startups are not just another new business but they bring added value to society. It solves the problems that never addressed before. It creates jobs, demand, and run the economic cycle. Startup companies are the most dynamic economic organisations as they bring more competitiveness and vigilance on the table. This activity was well related with the Principles of Entrepreneurship as it develops a sense of creativity, innovativeness and imagination.

So this activity helped everyone to be generous in nature, raise support in worst conditions, raise above by humanity so that maximum contributions towards the society can be done.

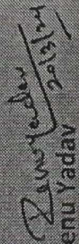

Winners of the event were:

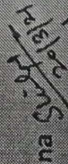

First Position: Anav Sharma (BBA 6)

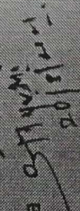

Second Position: Tushar Rana (BBA CAM 6)

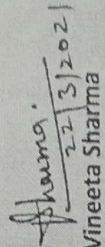

OUTCOME

After completion with activity, students were motivated enough for start-ups in near future. Each and every student gained knowledge and many of them decided to participate next time in such activities. Everyone decided to provide maximum contribution towards the society and the common people. This online platform activity was proved to be a great success.

Faculty Development Program
Under the Aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)
(Monday, 12th July 2021 – Sunday, 18th July 2021)

Topic: Global Educational and Economic Order in the Post-Covid-19 Era: Challenges, Opportunities, Strategies and Innovations

CONSOLIDATED REPORT

A One-Week long Online Faculty Development Programme on the topic Global Educational and Economic Order in the Post-Covid-19 Era: Challenges, Opportunities, Strategies and Innovations was organized by IIMT between July 12 to July 18, 2021.

In view of the precautionary protocols of the ongoing COVID – 19 pandemic, the FDP was conducted online through CISCO WebEx platform. The institute received an overwhelming response from across India. The sessions were attended by all the registered participants for all seven days. Each day's proceedings commenced with the invocation of blessings of Goddess Saraswati followed by the welcome address. The dignitaries were felicitated by the Institute through a virtual presentation of bouquets and Idols bestowed as a token of gratitude. Towards the end of each session, they were also presented with a virtual letter of appreciation. In the spirit of learning, participants were encouraged to ask questions. These questions were compiled and asked by the moderators at the end of each session. The sessions culminated with a patriotic song and a ceremonial salute in honor of the soldiers of the country who have been untiringly serving to protect the integrity and sanctity of the country.

The Management committee comprising Chairperson Madam Smt. Sudha Aggarwal and Secretary General Sir, Shri Vineet Aggarwal took time off their busy schedule and joined multiple sessions to invigorate the spirit of the organizing team, faculty members and the participants. The stalwart Director, Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma partook in the sessions as a guiding and motivating figure. His unmatched stewardship warranted the success of the programme. The untiring efforts of the overall in-charge, Dr. Vineeta Sharma, Principal BBA 1st shift were truly commendable. Her in-charge ship necessitated excellence in every minute detail related to organization as well as execution of the FDP. The tutelage of the IT advisor and Principal BBA 2nd Shift Dr. Seema Nath Jain was laudable throughout the course of the FDP. Her comprehensive style of organization was unmatched.

Apart from attending the FDP, all the faculty members of the Institute were assigned various duties like welcoming and felicitating the guest speakers, playing the Saraswati Vandana before each Technical session, moderating the sessions, proposing the Vote of Thanks, presenting the Letters of Appreciation to the guest speakers after every technical session and handling the technical issues of the online platform. The organizing team of the FDP shaped the entire programme in a beauteous way and ensured that it was a huge success.

The FDP proceedings were scheduled as follows

- Technical session-1 (10:00 a.m. to 1:30 a.m.)
- Technical Session-2 (12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m.)

INAUGURAL SESSION

(Monday, 12th July 2021)

CHIEF GUEST: Prof K.K. Aggarwal (Former Vice Chancellor, GGSIP University, Delhi and Chairperson, National Board of Accreditation)

The Inaugural session was presided over by Hon'ble Chief Guest Prof K.K. Aggarwal (Former Vice Chancellor, GGSIP University, Delhi and Chairperson, National Board of Accreditation). Prof. Aggarwal commenced his inaugural address by congratulating the Institute for choosing a very pertinent topic i.e. Global Educational and Economic Order in the Post-Covid-19 Era: Challenges, Opportunities, Strategies and Innovations for the FDP.

Sir exemplified the disruption caused by COVID upon human lives through various analogies. However, he also delved upon the counterview that despite the havoc wrecked, the pandemic has taught us the deepest lessons in survival. He posed a very important question about the substitutability value of online Education which was an overnight and unplanned transition for most parts of the world and suggested that all Educational Institutes must take heed of the suggestions in the New Education policy and prepare students for more than 1 skill in the post COVID world.

He highlighted the need for discussions about the sustainable development goals through the organization of webinars every month and concluded his inaugural address by encouraging the participants to be more 'question oriented' while emphasizing upon the art of finding good questions.

The 11th Volume of the Ideal Journal of Management and IT was released by the Chief Guest, Prof. KK Aggarwal in the inaugural session of the FDP

(Monday, 6th September 2021)

(Timings: 10 am Onwards)

REPORT

Keeping up with changing trends in virtual learning, School of Law, IIMT has been initiating pioneering techniques to provide holistic exposure and training of its law students. Intellectual Property Rights Cell of our institute organised an Online Seminar on the topic “Introducing the World of Intellectual Property Laws with special reference to Relevance of IP Appellate Board” conducted by Prof. (Dr.) Alka Chawla, Campus Law Centre, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi.

The event, though conducted online, was also attended by about 40 students in person through video conferencing in the college Auditorium while observing SOP. It was attended by approximately 110 students through Cisco Webex Platform.

The event was convened by Ms. Perna Gulati (Incharge, IPR Cell), Ms. Anukriti Gupta (Deputy) and Ms. Astha Bhatnagar (Member, IPR Cell).

The following team along with the Convening team performed various duties effectively:

Session in Brief

Speaker: Prof. (Dr.) Alka Chawla , CLC, Delhi University

Topic: "Introducing the World of Intellectual Property Laws with special reference to Relevance of IP Appellate Board"

Date: 6th September 2021

The online seminar was commenced by the welcoming of the Speaker, Organisers, Faculty and students by the Anchor. The brief outline of the topic was laid down and the concept note was read following which the Speaker was invited to deliver the lecture.

Objective:

The aim of the seminar was to introduce fundamental aspects of Intellectual property Rights, to disseminate knowledge on patents, copyrights, trademarks and GIs in India and to make students aware about current trends in IPR and Govt. steps in fostering IPR.

Brief Summary:

The speaker of the day, Prof. (Dr.) Alka Chawla, in her phenomenal lecture utilised graphical techniques to elucidate the concepts of Intellectual Property. She talked about basics of IP laws and explained various kinds of Intellectual Properties in a detailed manner. She also laid down the issues faced in enforcement of the IP laws. She apprised the students about the scraping off of IPAB and the debate around its reinforcement. The speaker was able to grab the attention of the participants throughout the session by giving humorous illustrations time and again. The speaker also actively utilised the chat box throughout her lecture to interact with the students and address their doubts. The discourse was concluded with a Q&A round where the participants actively asked queries and the speaker elegantly offered cogent answers, marking the end of a very illuminating discussion.

Learning Outcome:

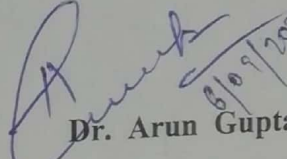

The lecture helped the attendees successfully understand the jurisprudential aspects of Intellectual Property Regime in India and the registration aspects of patents, copyrights, trademarks etc. The speaker gave insights on unconventional forms of IP and some novel trends in the field.

The session was graced by the active presence of Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma, Director, Ideal Institute of Management and Technology. Following the presentation of Letter of Appreciation to the esteemed Guest, Dr. Arun Gupta appreciated the speaker for her highly informative and interesting session.

REPORT

The Ideal Institute of Management and Technology since its very inception has recognized the wide array of benefits and aims at bringing the views of experts, researchers, academia, and students to the forefront, to create substantial positive change in the Social Scenario and with the said aim the institute annually organizes Rakesh Aggarwal Memorial National Law Conference on contemporary issues of legal significance. Though the Competition is conducted at the institute with a huge number of participants every year, during the ongoing pandemic era where the academic world is at a standstill, our institute has thrived upon its spirits and has kept on going forward with its academic as well as cultural endeavors even in the virtual mode.

Thus, this year the institute under the aegis of IQAC, organized Rakesh Aggarwal Memorial Online National Law Conference, 2022 on the topic 'Reshaping the World through Sustainability: Emerging Trends Impacting Development' On 22nd January, 2022. To add to the grandeur of the event the Programme Patron and the Vice Principal, School of law Dr. Arun Gupta reached out to one of the colossal personalities of the legal academia, Prof. (Dr.) Manoj Sinha, Director, ILI, Delhi, and Sir gracefully consented to be the Chief Guest for the event. His valuable presence in the inaugural session of the event was propitious and upped the spirits of both the organizing team and the Presenters.

The event offered opportunities to the participating audiences to interact with activists, academicians, scholars, and experts from all over the world who deliberated upon and covered topics around the issues of created identity perceptions in mass media, social media, new media, films, advertisements, daily soaps, songs, etc. The conference comprised of incisive and insightful discussions on various facets of the issue of sustainability as reflected and refracted through the prism of development. The views expressed and explored on this platform by the resource persons and paper presenters made the audience rethink ideas that we cling on to unthinkingly in our daily life. The conference comprised of three concurrent sessions namely the Inaugural, Technical, and Valedictory sessions.

Inaugural Session: 10:00 a.m. -11:00 a.m.

Rakesh Aggarwal Memorial Online National Law Conference, 2022 received an overwhelming response from across the country. In total 124 attended the inaugural session. A total of 29 papers were presented during the Technical Session.

Session in Brief:

Inaugural Session

10:00 am -11:00 am

Prof. (Dr.) Manoj Sinha, Director, Indian Law Institute, Delhi

The event commenced by seeking the blessing of the Goddess Saraswati. The tone of the event was laid down by the concept note. Subsequently, the Vice Principal, School of Law, Dr. Arun Gupta welcomed the venerated Chief Guest Prof. (Dr.) Manoj Sinha also eloquently read the versatile profile in his welcome address.

Prof. (Dr.) Manoj Sinha in his inaugural address commended the efforts of the institute in organizing the conference themed around sustainability and providing an active platform for the experts in the field, researchers, students, and academics to come together for fruitful discussions and exchange of ideas thereby sensitizing those present and involved in the conference around the issues and challenges faced in reshaping the world towards developments keeping the sustainability intact.

Thereafter, the exalted Conference Proceedings were virtually released by the Chief Guest Prof. (Dr.) Manoj Sinha alongside the dignitaries. As a gesture of gratitude and respect the Chief Guest was granted the Letter of Appreciation for his invaluable time and presence at the Conference.

Dr. Arun Gupta delivered the Vote of thanks in his address he offered his sincere gratitude to the Chief Guest for gracing the event and his illuminating address; he also applauded the management committee, Dr. Arun Gupta, Chairperson, Shri. Vineet Aggarwal, Secretary-General, IIMT, and Prof. (Dr.) Anil Kumar for their earnest team efforts and dedication. Thereafter, he praised the convening committee for following the traditions of the institute, the inaugural session was concluded by offering our tribute to the front line warriors.

Session in Brief:

Technical Session: 11:15 a.m. -2:30 p.m.

Prof. (Dr.) Shivani Goswami, USLLS, GGSIP University, Delhi

The Inaugural session the event went forward with the technical session where the paper presenters were asked to present their papers on the online platform. Each of the papers presented was carefully examined by the learned session chair along with the moderator and Co-Moderator for the session namely Dr. Hemlata Sharma, Associate Professor, IIMT, and Ms. Purna Gulati, Senior Assistant Professor, IIMT. It was on completion of each paper that the chair collectively inquired about the various aspects relating to paper writing and presentation, especially about research, content, statistics; etc.

This session from its inception established an intrinsic analysis of the papers where the presenters were made to justify their writing including their reasons for the writing of the article or papers. Each paper presentation concluded with an overall remark on improvements in writing from the Hon'ble chair for the session.

The acute approach toward evaluation and dissemination of tips by Dr. Hemlata Sharma, Associate Professor, IIMT, and Ms. Purna Gulati, Senior Assistant Professor, IIMT were widely appreciated by the participants as they were not only presenting their topics but were simultaneously learning more about writing.

The technical session ended with the presentation of a Letter of Appreciation and a vote of thanks to Prof. (Dr.) Shivani Goswami, USLLS, GGSIP University, Delhi by Ms. Purna Gulati, Senior Assistant Professor, IIMT as a mark of gratitude for sparing her valuable time and putting in her efforts to add panache to the national conference which was followed by Dr. Arun Gupta brief address to the chair where he on behalf of the organizing committee and the IIMT offered his sincere gratitude to Prof. Goswami for gracing the event. Even the same gesture was reciprocated by Prof. Goswami blessing the convening team for their earnest team efforts and dedication and the entire faculty for their coordination.

The technical session ended with a short break followed by the valedictory session.

Session in Brief:

Valedictory Session: 3:00 p.m. -4:00 p.m.

Chief Guest Prof. (Dr.) Viney Kapoor, Vice-Chancellor, NLU, Sonapat

Post the technical session the event went forward with the conclusion of the day with the valedictory session of the national conference which was graced by the august presence of Chief Guest Prof. (Dr.) Viney Kapoor, Vice-Chancellor, NLU, Sonapat, who despite her ill health joined the session and communicated her message but had to leave due to her dire health condition. The event was also graced by the august presence of the Management Committee of IIMT Smt. Sudha Aggarwal, Chairperson, IIMT, Sh. Vineet Aggarwal, Secretary-General, IIMT, Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma, Director, IIMT, Dr. Vineeta Sharma, Principal, BBA 1st Shift, IIMT, Dr. Seema Nath Jain, Principal, BBA IInd Shift, IIMT and Dr. Arun Gupta, Principal, School of Law, IIMT.

With the Chief Guest not being able to further attend the proceedings the event was carried forward by the Hon'ble Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma moved the event in a superfluous manner towards its conclusion where at inception the gathering was addressed by the Chairperson, IIMT, Smt. Sudha Aggarwal and Secretary General, IIMT Sh. Vineet Aggarwal praised the Organising Committee for the successful completion of the national conference.

The event then went ahead with the Director Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma addressed the gathering about the importance of such academic conferences and how the Ideal institute paves an important opportunity for the academia to present their ideas in a novel manner. Post the Hon'ble Director's address, participants were awarded certificates for the successful presentation of the paper by the entire chair for the valedictory session.

It was due to the never-ending support of the Management and the collective efforts of the organizing team that the conference saw the light of the day which was very reflected in the Vote of Thanks by Dr. Hemlata Sharma. Ma'am thanking the effort of all pointed out the technicalities of organizing such online events and how the efforts of the School of Law were pivotal in the completion of the said conference.

The event ended in the remembrance and salutation of the fallen heroes and of those who tirelessly serve society with the hope of another vibrant and enriching conference in the next year.

CONSOLIDATED REPORT

On
Workshop on Para-Legal Volunteer Training Program

Organized by

Legal Aid Clinic, School of Law, IIMT

In collaboration with DSLSA

On

11th, 12th AND 13th April, 2022

The Legal Aid Clinic, School of Law, IIMT in collaboration with DSLSA organized a three-day Para-Legal Volunteer Training Programme from 11th, 12th, and 13th April 2022 for the students of Law in the Legal Aid Clinic in the institute. The Training Programme was organized under the guidance and supervision of the Hon'ble Prof. (Dr.) Arun Gupta, Principal, School of Law, IIMT in approaching the DSLSA and for the prompt execution of this program.

The Training sessions consisted of various lectures and dialogues with the Reverend Judges of DSLSA and various DSLSA's and each of the sessions were dedicated to legal topics of prominent value for the Para-Legal volunteers which will in turn be beneficial to them during their work as PLVs under the diverse and programs of DSLSA.

The training program is an annual endeavor of DSLSA in collaboration with the School of Law, IIMT based on the objective of the statute i.e. to promote an inclusive legal system to ensure fair and meaningful justice to the marginalized and disadvantaged sector and the active role of the PLVs in attaining the said objective.

The three-day event was conducted in the following sequence as follows:-

Day 1 Session 1 - Inaugural Session by Sh. Karwal Jee Arora, Member Secretary, DSLSA
Topic - Introduction to Legal Services Authorities Act and its activities & Role and Responsibilities of PLVs

The Inaugural session was taken by the Reverend Judge Sh. Karwal Jee Arora, Member Secretary, DSLSA as a Keynote Speaker for the day on the topic 'Introduction to Legal Services Authorities Act, its activities & Role and Responsibilities of PLVs'. The session was conducted to aid the students with the insightful experience and understanding of the key aspects, historical development and on the very need of the Legal Services Authorities Act via the statute's preamble i.e. provision of equitable justice and the viable execution of welfare provisions.

The welcome address for the day was presented by Ms. Prerna Gulati, Senior Assistant Professor.

Objective:

The aim of the seminar was to extend knowledge about innovation and creativity in Intellectual Property Rights. It recognized the huge potential of the students to find new and better solutions that support the transition to a sustainable future.

Brief Summary:

The speaker of the day, Mr. K.P. Sivaramakrishnan, Founder, Sivaramakrishnan Law Offices, in his exceptional lecture shared that for policymakers everywhere, we call on to listen the needs and concerns of young inventors, creators and entrepreneurs and to develop policies and programs that nurture and support their endeavors to innovate for a better future. He also emphasized on the Millennials and Gen Z are the change-makers and they are pragmatists who are not afraid to speak out and challenge the status quo. He shared that today's youth are digital natives, they grew up in a connected world with mobile phones and the Internet, where the lines the physical and digital world is blurred. This has shaped a generation that is arguably the most entrepreneurial, innovative and creative yet.

The moderation was concluded with a Q&A round where the participants actively asked queries and the speaker elegantly offered cogent answers, marking the end of a very illuminating discussion.

Learning Outcome:

The lecture helped the attendees successfully understand the opportunity for young people on how to find out IP rights which has supported their goals, help transform their ideas into reality, generate income, create jobs and make a positive impact on the world around them. With IP rights, young people have access to some of the key tools they need to advance their ambitions.

*Report of One Week Online Faculty Development Programme
Under PMMMNMTT, Ministry of Education, GOI*

RATIONALE FOR THE COURSE:

The Faculty Development Programme (FDP) is an academic endeavour towards fostering the knowledge and professional skills of faculty members to enhance their performance in education, research, and administration. The programme aids the members in augmenting instructional capabilities in contemporary educational pedagogy and develops them professionally with an improved understanding of professional responsibilities as educators, researchers, and administrators.

In light of the prevailing dynamic and uncertain times, it has become pertinent for all educators to upgrade their skills and become fully competent in the new ICT-dominated modes of functioning so as to continue with their quest for providing higher education of highest standards. The Faculty Development Programme was specifically designed to discuss, deliberate, and mentor the precise usage of Technological Advancements in the field Education, Management and Law. The nascent researchers, academicians, legal experts, and other participants were provided with an excellent opportunity to learn from the esteemed panel of experts who delivered their distinguished and expert addresses on various issues concerning the application of emerging technologies in the arena of teaching and research.

The primary aim and objective of this programme was to stipulate an opportunity for the attending distinguished scholars, researchers, and teachers of the nation to engage with the fledgling members of the faculty. The experiences and perspectives were shared regarding latest methods and techniques used in teaching and research with the help of forthcoming technologies. The focus of the FDP was essentially upon the deliberation on the impact of these technologies on academia while identifying the gaps and suggesting future reforms therein.

The programme received an overwhelming response from participants from across the nation. There were around seventy registrations for the same. The inaugural session witnessed attendance of eighty-seven participants (inclusive of the gracious presence of the guest speakers).

INAUGURAL SESSION:

Day 1 (Monday, 11th July, 2022)
Timings: 10.00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Speaker: Prof. (Dr.) S Panda, Director, Staff Training and Research Institute of Distance Education (STRIDE) IGNOU, New Delhi.
Topic: Inaugural Address on Technological Advancement in Education, Management and Law.

The Inaugural Session commenced with the joining of participants followed by the assemblance of experts and orientation of the program detail. After the joining of the revered guest for the session, the blessings of the supreme power were invoked by recitation of the university's prayer titled 'Deh Shiva'.

The session then witnessed a brief concept note about the programme by Prof. (Dr.) Amit Kauts, Project Coordinator, School of Education, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. He explained the importance of the scheme in bringing valued discussions about instrumental topics helpful in building a robust nation. Professor enumerated the improvements in the quality of the Indian institutions and subsequent advancement in the global ranking of the institutes. Prof. Kauts also referred to the National Education Policy which has listed essential criteria which must be adhered to and followed by the new methods that have been introduced in the pandemic era which has in turn been a boon as it has increased connectivity amongst the educational fraternity. Sir referred to the concept of engagement in teaching and the amalgamation of all these practices towards inductive learning. Prof. Kauts also referred to the increasing role of digital platforms used in court procedures, litigation, and other fields as well.

The concept note was followed by the welcome address delivered by Prof. (Dr.) Deepa Sikand Kauts, Head, School of Education, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. The dignitaries were then felicitated through a virtual presentation of bouquets and idols. The token of gratitude was delivered by Ms. Jasmandeep Kaur, Sr. Assistant Professor, IIMT which furthered the ceremony by inviting the dignitaries and felicitating them with a Bhagavad Gita and a bouquet. The ceremony was concluded in the order as follows:

- ✚ Prof. (Dr.) Jaspal Singh Sandhu by Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma, Director, IIMT
- ✚ Prof. (Dr.) S. Panda by Prof. (Dr.) Arun Gupta, Principal, School of Law
- ✚ Prof. (Dr.) Amit Kauts by Prof. (Dr.) Hemlata Sharma, Vice-Principal, School of Law, IIMT
- ✚ Prof. (Dr.) Deepa Sikand Kauts by Dr. Seema Nath Jain, Principal, BBA (2nd Shift), IIMT
- ✚ Smt. Sudha Aggarwal, Chairperson, IIMT by Dr. Vineeta Sharma, Principal, BBA (1st Shift), IIMT
- ✚ Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma, Director, IIMT by Ms. Jasmandeep Kaur, Sr. Assistant Professor, IIMT

Post Felicitation, the Hon'ble Prof. (Dr.) Jaspal Singh Sandhu, Vice-Chancellor, Guru Nanak Dev University and Former Secretary of UGC, New Delhi was introduced by Prof. (Dr.) Deepa Sikand Kauts, where she made the participants aware of the diverse profile of the speaker with much recognition that spoke volumes about the experience that Sir has accumulated over the years. Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor began his address with recognition of the various heads of the programme and the effort they put into the successful organization and execution of the same. In his address Sir emphasized on the importance of gratitude and grace as being pivotal in an academician's career and never the accolades should get in the way of the education. He therefore urged the teachers to always remain humble throughout their career as they are not only teachers but also inspiration for the upcoming professionals. Sir ended his address with his blessings towards the successful execution of the one-week programme.

After the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor's address, a brief interaction was carried forward by the Hon'ble Chairperson of IIMT, Smt. Sudha Aggarwal. She congratulated both the institutions towards this feat of achievement in bringing such instrumental topics on the academic forum which are very important for the basic sustenance of the current academic trends.

Post the Chairperson's address, the Inaugural Address was delivered by Prof. (Dr.) Santosh Panda, Director, Staff Training and Research Institute of Distance Learning (STRIDE), IGNOU, New Delhi and Former Chairperson, NCTE, Government of India. Sir commenced his inaugural address by congratulating the organizers for choosing a very pertinent topic, that is, 'Technological Advancement in Education, Management and Law' for the programme and individually recognized the efforts of the organizing committee towards the refined execution of the same. Sir began by exemplifying the foundational principles of the National Education Policy, 2020, and its impact on human lives through various analogies. He stated that the consequences of the 2020 policy are the emphasis on a multidisciplinary approach towards the new model of education which is bringing in structural changes being brought in education simultaneously changing the teaching pedagogies and overall learning of a student. Prof. Panda also delved into the counterview that despite the online medium huge reliance is still made on physical learning and explained the importance of the new practices in the credit-based learning system which allows the student to earn credits in multiple disciplines and even inclusive cross-border or cross-country education. Professor stressed the point of a diverse syllabus allowing better means of maintaining the continuity of learning so much so that the content is available free of cost on online platforms. He also explained the role of the Ministry of Education in rendering skill-based degrees/certificates which strictly cater to the immediate need of the market if the student's desires can be followed by the bridge courses which is an outcome of the Credit Based Learning System. He elaborated further on the importance of this system through the fact that the education sector has around twenty-three crore students which are to be thought about as the learning must not be towards nullity. While stating so, Sir posed a very important question about the substance of online education which will not be possible as an overnight transition and would require a stratified approach. Revered speaker enumerated the importance of research and its congruence or conformity in practice in the upcoming years and the same to be done by the institutions, not in dominance but an association. He suggested that all educational institutes must take heed of the upcoming technologies in education and prepare students towards skilled learning and multiple entry/exit options for the sustainable learning and professional growth of the students as envisaged in the National Education Policy. The exhaustive address was followed by a presentation teaching curriculum designing inclusive of the strategies adopted in imbibing blended learning which in turn provided flexibility in learning allowing better employment options post-education. The intricate domain of foundations of learning and how the same can be adopted under various platforms of learning are it face-to-face, online, or blended. He explained the importance of cognitive learning strategies and their assessment of/on/as learning. He oriented the participants about Swayam Portal via-a-vis MOOC learning based on the theory of connectivism and the concept of Four Quadrant Teaching. Sir also explained the novel concept of 'Creative Commerce' where sharing is not copyrighted for education thereby bringing open education sources. He highlighted the utilization of students for content creation and an open repository of online sources which are accessible through free access which in conclusion will encourage coordination and cooperation in content creation. Sir went further to explain about the Learning Management System created by the Hon'ble Sir which has also received a national award. The System was created in a low-key technology but allowed easy content creation added with learner support. He then moved towards Synchronous/Asynchronous content and communication allowing effective learning for students via blog etc and the assessment can be followed on the same. He stressed the importance of social networking which will further allow engaged learning and following an e-portfolio assessment followed by a practical case study on blended learning. Sir also made participants aware of STRIDE - Staff Training and Research Institute of Distant Education which allows Post Graduate Diploma in E-Learning allowing the student to earn credit weekly via assignments and discussions via Google group etc turning informal sources into formal sources. The address was concluded by explaining the government's plan in introducing a viable mechanism of CBCS encouraging the participants to be more intriguing and innovative in learning while following a 'Question-Oriented' approach to holistic learning and growth.

The closing remarks were then delivered by Hon'ble Director, IIMT, Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma. Sir very eloquently explained the lacunae prevalent in the technological aspect of education thereby leading to the question of efficacy in learning. Sir in his remark praised the efforts of the organizing committee in their articulate choice of topic and of the fluent collaboration between the two institutions in the successful execution of the program. Sir also referred to the key points put forward by the Hon'ble speakers for the day in introducing blended learning and of a robust choice based credit system with multiple entry and exit points in the courses which are very much essential for effective and skilled learning that may turn useful in attainment of sound employment opportunities.

The closing remarks followed by a Vote of Thanks were delivered by Prof. (Dr.) Arun Gupta (Principal, School of Law, IIMT) and the organizing secretary for the programme. Professor discussed at length about the planning and preparation that went in the organizing of the programme and thanked the erudite management committee at Ideal Institute of Management and Technology, Delhi and Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for their most valued guidance and support. He also expressed gratitude towards the speakers for their exhaustive and rigorous explanation of the topic and their contribution in the online mode leading to the successful culmination of the Inaugural Session of the programme.

Day 1 (Monday, 11th July, 2022)

Session 3

Timings: 02:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Day 2 (Tuesday, 12th July 2022)

Session 1

Timings: 10:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Speaker: Prof. (Dr.) Deepa Sikand Kauts, Professor and Dean, School of Education, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar

Topic: National Higher Education Qualification Framework in India (NHEQF)

Prof. (Dr.) Deepa Sikand Kauts commenced the session by throwing some light on the main characteristic components of National Education Policy, 2020. The major point of discussion was on the learning outcomes in education system. Professor discussed at length the framework used for assigning credits to evaluate the learning outcomes.

The hon'ble speaker particularly stated that the policy is encouraging the shift in focus from STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) to STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics). The emphasis during the discourse was also laid on the role of arts/ social sciences as the field has been grooming better individuals. The resource person confidently stated that the field of arts will lead to better social behavioral skills and higher social intelligence amongst the students. Creation of harmony and establishment of aesthetics would eventually lead to conception of human values.

The significance of multiple entry and exit options offered to students under the policy was deliberated upon. Concept of major and minor courses of the programme that the student might pursue and the way the credits are being assigned to these different courses were also narrated during the session. The policy is putting pressure on the introduction of inter-disciplinary multi-disciplinary approaches to make education more relatable for the learners. The dynamism of culmination shall let the students explore multiple disciplines, and aid them while practicing at the front.

The resource person also appropriately discussed the fact that the focus of the policy is already making the learners job ready. The under-graduate programmes handing over six credits for job internship as a part of the curriculum itself has created this difference. The focus has definitely shifted towards the employability skills that can be developed through educational platforms. While concluding, the speaker stated that the generic learning outcomes could be achieved by application of knowledge and skills.

The hon'ble speaker commenced by extensively explaining the three pillars of higher education (those are, Digitization, Internationalization and Collaboration) as has been highlighted by Sh. Karan Gupta. Affordability of education and the allowance the collaboration brings were put forth as the two-fold effect that the pillars bring in the present day environment. He also apprised the audience of the available pedagogical tools, and far-reaching facilitation it is providing to blended teaching-learning experience. The speaker criticized the reliance it has brought along, and sincerely urged to utilise the tools wisely without disturbing the essence of traditional teaching.

Prof. Veerabhadran specifically discussed the four quintessential steps (those are, emphasis on life-long learning, spirit to work together, skill to apply knowledge and professionalism) required to be taken to work at par with the global standards set out for higher education. Enhancement of the quality of human resource, cross-country accreditation/ recognition, welcoming the global talent and strengthening the infrastructure were emphasized upon while discussing the mediums of achieving the essential. The speaker also comprehensively deliberated upon the role of international agencies hold in enhancing the quality of experience at global level.

Professor insightfully furthered the five trends in higher education (those are, technological trends in teaching-learning, soft skills training, developing contents for constant engagement with students, facilitating learning versus teaching and life-long learning trend) as has been reported by the Journal – EHL Insights in the year 2021. He humbly shared a personal experience of learning at Singapore a pedagogical tool, i.e. an electronic gaming platform. The certainty of the tool was confirmed through an elaboration of utilising the same during a lecture taken by him at University. The speaker while closing the session posed issues and challenges that the recent trends are bringing along. He specifically concentrated his thoughts on the lack of institutional infrastructure, attention span of the students and privacy/ copyright issues faced by the facilitators of knowledge. The session essentially provoked the participants to ponder upon the ways to overcome the situations placed, and to align the same in a manner that can bring forth the ultimate experience. Professor, thereafter, gracefully answered the queries of the participants, and the session was deeply appreciated by the attendees. Day 2 (Tuesday, 12th July 2022)

Session 3

Timings: 2:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Speaker: Prof.(Dr.) Sanjeev K. Sharma, Director, Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) Panjab University, Chandigarh

Topic: Managing in an Era of Uncertainty: Technological, Social and Ethical Ramification

Prof. (Dr.) Sanjeev K. Sharma begun the session by revealing the primary characteristic of uncertainty that existed in the world. His significant place of conversation was centered on uncertainty in every industry that is happening much more frequently than ever before. He discussed that uncertainty can explode the existing structure of the present marketplace and it can also eliminate companies that do not anticipate it in advance and deal well with it.

Professor especially discussed about the companies research work during this era regarding technological, social and ethical ramification. He accentuated on technology enabled emerging dimensions like Death of Distance, Borderless World, Knowledge Economy, Mega Corporations, Integration of Technologies, and Economic Warlords, that is, the Knowledge Reservoirs. Sir also emphasized mainly on the technological, social and ethical ramifications related to the future uncertainty of all the flourishing companies in the present marketplace.

The speaker discussed about the significance of unicorns that are being established now-a-days in most of the parts of the world. In the present scenario, start-up leaders are the call for the future world. According to him, they all think out of the box, and their creativity starts from very scratch of the company's establishment. Sir discussed that the most unstoppable uncertainty for most legacy companies is the onslaught of digital companies that uses algorithm. He also threw light on how the uncertainty changes the landscape, and that landscape might create a new need, or a different need, or the same need addressed in a different way. A company which essentially won't be able to see this or respond to it will have difficulties.

The hon'ble resource person likewise thought upon the way that the focal point of today's scenario is to see the future uncertainty and the companies has to manage the same in a thoughtful manner. To explain better, the speaker also had taken live examples, like, Kodak, Fuji, Minolta Failure, Toyota, etc. He laid emphasis on the paradigm shift in the research work to be done by the companies in managing this era of uncertainty. In conclusion he remarked that all leaders and managers need to look at their world from the outside in as most of them have grown inside out. If we look at the world inside out, our lens has a very narrow scope. But if we look from the outside into our business, our lens is broader.

Day 3 (Wednesday, 13th July 2022)

Session 2

Timings: 12:00 noon – 1:30 p.m.

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Mayank Aggarwal, Associate Professor and Head of the Department, Computer Science and Engineering, Gurukul Kangri University, Haridwar.

Topic: Crypto Currency a New Era in Virtual Labour Market and Legal Issues

The proceedings held on the second day (13th July 2022, Wednesday) were trifurcated, and the present report details the second session.

The hon'ble speaker commenced by a three-fold narration involving the unaware as well as aware members of a society physically depositing currency in a mutually devised bank. These extensively elaborated the centralised, decentralised and the distributed computing systems. He augmented the above-stated in the sphere of block chain technology by declaring it to be a distributed decentralised mechanism, wherein every node involved keeps a record through the processes of encryption, decryption, hash and algorithm function.

Dr. Aggarwal comprehensively discussed the mechanism involved behind the technology, and specifically stated that this chronologically placed multi-purpose public-distributed ledger is claimed to be impossible to manipulate. Although, while discussing the limitation he did mention hackers having strong technique holding capability of disrupting the same.

The speaker also apprised the audience of the fact that crypto currency based upon the technology of block chain is not controlled and governed by any specific government, rather is a computer-generated mechanism. He, though, insightfully furthered the aspect of conversion to other recognised currencies.

The orator, before moving any further, meticulously put forth the background and history of the system. He explained the negative situation of double spending (spanning from 1991 to 2008), and credited pseudonymous Satoshi Nakamoto for solving the same via a white paper published on Bit Coin. Attention of people from across the globe was received to this particular system of block chain, and investment in the wallet increased abundantly. The rules were certainly imposed confirming 50 bit coins (at a declining rate of fifty per cent every four years) for every miner. At present, the confirmation stands at 6.25 and in the next leap it is surely going to lower itself down to 3.125. The rate of decline is considerably high, and under the given light the audience were recommended by the speaker not to invest in the market. Although, crypto currency lost a lot of its magnetism in the ear 2013, wherein attention shifted back to the block chain technology. Furthering, its importance, in the year 2019 a 3.0 version was devised for using the same at other platforms.

The reverend speaker mentioned in brief the legal nuances with regard to the mechanism being discussed in detail. The 2021 Bill, named, The Crypto Currency and Regulation of Official Digital Currency Bill seeks to create a facilitative framework for an official digital currency that will be issued exclusively by the Reserve Bank of India. Dr. Aggarwal acknowledged this to be a reform, but also highlighted that this might not be enacted. This concern was raised keeping under record the scenario ever since.

The speaker gracefully answered the queries of the participants during as well as after the discourse. The session was deeply appreciated by the attendees. A formal vote of thanks was proposed by the leader for the day, Ms. Gagneet Kaur, Assistant Professor, BBA (2nd Shift), Ideal Institute of Management and Technology, Delhi.

The present report pertains to the proceedings of the second session held on the fourth day i.e. 14th July 2022. The session started with Prof. Amit Kauts welcoming the prolific speaker. Dr. Deepa Jain, the Group Leader for the session introduced the speaker and the topic for the session. The hon'ble speaker commenced his session by expressing gratitude to the organizing committee. Sir in his lecture discussed about the novel technologies that emerged as a solution to the contingency that arose due to the pandemic. Sir extensively elaborated on the ease of access and the increase in online global retail trade by 3% in a pandemic year.

He explained how the global economy evolved in these times and how the United Nations reported that the mitigation towards online resources solved much of the trade-related problems during lockdown helping the socio-economic sector. The concept of B2C and C2C evolved rapidly which was earlier not seen in the country. These business models have erupted beyond physical spaces via an online platform which diversified the market and helped e-commerce for creating a global economy.

Sir also explained about the role of the platform being vital in supply chain mechanisms and the docketing becoming easier due to single-point access and thus manufacturing and expediting the whole trade process. This process in turn helped to track the order which exactly places the consumer in actual know-how of the product and its location during transit.

This online model removed the intermediary complexity and further enhanced the company's role as easier warranty policies came in to aid. This whole fiasco increased the global presence of brands helping them to understand better the mechanisms of the commercial market.

In his lecture, Sir referred to the SDG 2030 for research in trade and commerce which further allowed the small-time traders to enter into the cashless and digitalized market. He referred to the intricacies with the uninformed Indian crowds which also in turn learned the process. This learning not only helped commercial giants but also helped the local vendor in both B2C and C2C models.

The revered speaker talked about companies like Amazon and Alibaba etc, which is in B2C models and also the introduction of C2C models where bulk trade moved into the domain of consumers. These orders have changed now the product has also gone towards reselling in the same market which also increased the bargain in the market increasing elasticity in the market. He referred to the technological model which dealt with fewer than two aspects - ease of use and usefulness of the platform. Thus the adoption of any program is based on any of the two parameters as the masses respond to the complexities in reverse e-commerce which means an opportunity to Consumer in pitching the ideas directly to the company. Sir also talked about the C2A model that information relating to the trade-related aspects can also be introduced in the public domain thereby helping the CSR initiatives.

Sir, concluded the above-mentioned idea of streamlined flow in the market which allows easy information share due to enriched data sharing in the business in the market in the OTP in the market which are very much favourable to the sellers which the inflow of the seller and buyers in the market allowing the flow of demand and supply allowing alternatives in payment options and usage of market-related options. He referred to the importance of mobility in the market allowing them to help the market.

Sir in his session also talked about the usage of the web space and its presentation in the market and the utilization of resources in an articulate manner. He referred to the vitality or spontaneous dissemination of information depending on the platform it is utilized in an unpaid form which is a deviation from the standard practices that have been followed previously including the new influencer marketing which not only sponsors the product but also the talk about the pros and cons of the product which allows increased awareness in the market thus helping the Indian market.

Sir referred to the concept of a global village which was earlier only talked about but is now a reality with companies like jaguar, land rover having an increased road presence in the country. All of these global products are present today due to the change in dynamics of the Indian market.

Dr. Raj then comprehensively discussed the changes in the pandemic which was a spontaneous assault on trade in the market and how these changes shifted to the tech platform which brought conformity in the physical world to the new digital world. Thus changing the pattern towards virtual vehicles of e-commerce brought additional pressure on the logistics which was a compulsion.

The speaker also apprised the audience of the adaptability in the Indian Education as well as the Economy including the other accessibility options developing online mode of transport and the inclination of crowd deviation towards the online Indian Market. Then Sir referred to the aspect of Man being a social animal and how the Social networking sites like WebEx, Zoom and meet, etc covered the Indian market which included Office meetings, Classroom Teaching all included. Sir then referred to the commercial trends in Global trade statistics reflecting the market graph increasing from the one trillion to Six Trillion dollar mark and how these statistics affected the online marketing via the usage of user reviews etc and all of this leading to the increase of brand associations, ad viewership thereby affecting all the 4P – product, promotion and purchase removing the place out of it.

The orator meticulously explained the increased awareness of the kids where the role of television has been changed to the internet and the idea of the concept and practicality of information explosion which was seconded by the data released by McKenzie and company in the year 2020 that the domestic e-commerce will double in the market. The revered speaker mentioned nuances of benefits in the market in the education, entertainment, and retail sector and how even the developed economies like that of the United States which was boosted by the number of Unique Individual consumers rising at 40% meaning an increase in expenditure.

The speaker then went into the domain of augmented reality and the concept of digital and contactless payments and remote work. Sir referred to 5G technologies as also being a major development in the information systems incorporated due to the pandemic and stressed the importance of network services. After the session revered Sir gracefully answered the queries of the participants during as well as after the discourse. The session was deeply appreciated by the attendees and faculties attending the session. A formal vote of thanks was proposed by the leader for the day, Dr. Neha Kapur Chawla, Assistant Professor, BBA (2nd Shift), RGNLU, Patiala congratulating the speaker for continuing the session even with the network restraints.

Mr. Vishal Gupta has begun the session by illuminating the importance of publishing the article in the right journal. He laid emphasis on the journals which are relevant to our article. He discussed that Elsevier Course could be initiated by all the researchers. Choosing the right references. He especially talked about the publishing workflow of the articles. He also discussed the top reasons for rejecting the articles. He explained the research metrics related to author, journal and article. In his the SWOT analysis has to be done about the research articles. They are the important part of evaluation landscape. Universities and funders need robust metrics to help them develop and monitor evidence based strategies. Ranking is done on the basics of metrics. He discussed examples like, document count, h-index researcher level, citation count, citations per paper, FWCI, article level, journal impact factor, cite score, journal level.

The hon'ble speaker also explained the procedure of calculating the h-index. It acts as a numerical indicator of how productive and influential a researcher is. He threw light on ORCID for connecting research and researchers for having a unique ID for everyone. This can be written on the research paper. He also explained on how to make selection between two articles for this he explained Field Weighted citation impact to compare two articles having different citations. He discussed the significance of Plum X Metrics that are provides insights into the ways people interact with individual pieces of research output. He explained the procedure of calculating the Impact factor of any journals with respect to respective examples, and explained that JCR reports only provides the impact factor which are authentic. He discussed about the Cite score -3c's which is freely available and helps authors to make well informed decisions regarding their publications. He explained that India is having more predatory journals than others. He explained Alternate metrics -SNIP AND SJR for comparing the multidisciplinary articles with real life examples of ISRO. He threw light on predatory as well as fake journals, citing the various characteristics for both. He focused on the point of not taking the short cut for publishing the research paper. He also explained the process of finding the journals through live example of SCOPUS. At last he emphasized that this industry is based on trust.

Day 6 (Saturday, 16th July 2022)

Session 1

Timings: 10:00 a.m. –11:30 a.m.

Speaker: Prof. (Dr.) Alok Kumar Chakravart, Vice Chancellor, Guru Ghasidas

Vishwavidyalaya, Bilaspur

Topic: Designing the Research Project

The present report pertains to the proceedings of the second session held on the sixth day i.e. 16th July 2022. The session commenced with Dr. Anil Kaur's welcoming the chief speaker for the session and introducing the speaker adding to his stature. Sir referred the kind behavior that revered sir echoes the very atmosphere with his dynamism followed by Ms. Deepa Kaushik introducing the topic for the session.

The hon'ble speaker commenced the session by expressing gratitude to the organizing committee. Sir in his kind gesture explained the importance of progressive thinking which is to be oriented with the present conduct and learning or motivating from the past conduct and not taking success to the head. Sir in his lecture started about the importance of basic intent or craving towards research in the fulfillment of a dedicated purpose which can be any towards social research, funding-based research or research carried out for any specific purpose. Sir talked that research is continuously being carried out in multiple areas which are continued in multiple platforms and venues.

Sir referred to the importance of resources in facilitation or aiding of research and exhaustion of the equipment that is already attained and only after that we should move towards acquiring new ones. He referred to the requirement of true intent as being the real parameter that aids in the research of the individual and the rest are all external factors that can only hinder research but not stop it altogether while quoting Faraday's experiment in research towards the generation of electricity and how Faraday continued the research for almost 20 years which is one of the most prominent examples of true research which turned out to be 'Faraday's Effect'.

Sir extensively elaborated on the key aspects of research with the diversity of research and how the country has deviated in research from quality to quantity with many other incumbencies via administrative functioning or other factors. Going forward with the same idea Sir talked about the inter-dependability and confluence of research work between different fields which is essential for furtherance of the potential research and these lacunae are now being answered by the current government in the unification of research data by single subscription.

He explained how, to begin with, the research proposal beginning with the objective of the research as being one of the most essential requisites for the beginning of the research to identify the outcome of the research that the researcher desires. Sir added to this point by referring to the enhancement of capability to sustain the effort required in the research. Sir during the course of his research referred to many quotes from the Indian texts defining the importance of research as imbibed within the Indian Literature.

Sir then explained the importance of the practicality of research rather than getting stuck in the ideal of research. Idealism doesn't carry forward the research but rather turns the same into a moot concept which in turn doesn't yield anything in research. The speaker then went forward with inculcating the very idea of research in every individual of the country thereby reducing the dependency on other countries and the same is incorporated in the National Education Policy 2020 which has subsequently removed the water-tight compartment system of the education system which stimulates research as allows amalgamation of courses as per the individual.

Sir then talked about not the importance of the proposal which cannot be initiated without the identification of the problem which is essential to society and has a practical requirement. During the course of this session, the speaker continuously engaged with the participants entertaining their query during the session.

The Speaker then talked about two-fold aspects of research, one being solution finding to a problem via theory where the researchers suggest practical solutions and the other being the action research which is based on the success of the activity and its finding being reported as research. Sir then referred to the dire condition of the health industry which was seen during the pandemic time and is never being thought upon as a viable topic of research that is the underlying reality of modern society. He then moved towards various research topics as suggested by the candidates for example solid waste management etc.

Sir referred to the finding of subsets of the research problem which is also essential in the identification of the fundamental area of research thereby suggesting the delimitation of research as that furthers removal of complexity and further enhances the quality of research. He then summed up the abovementioned point by the importance of literature review as allowing the researcher to identify the areas that have already been covered by other researchers and removal or escaping the same point turns the same into a never-ending research, i.e. one has to focus on the Research Problem.

The speaker then talked about defining for one's self the long-term, short term or object-based goal of the proposed research and the benefits that will impart to society. He referred to the importance of research going beyond the jargon and only being able to explain the usage and only the throwing of "statistical jugglery" i.e. only the reliance on jargon moving the reliance on research. He then referred to the depletion of the overall quality of research. Referring to the provision of NEP 2020, 40% credits being allowed through online sources at this position is in itself a very lower quality of learning as the learner is already cutting on the quality awarded in the Visitor's Conference of universities where the government acknowledges useful research which has helped society and does not revolve around the beautification in presentation of research. Speaker then talked about the importance of methodology that will be applied in the ongoing research as that will only ensure that what will be the thought that is carrying the research through its design. Thus when methodology reflects proper research design allows the researcher to identify proper research.

The speaker during his session eloquently answered all the questions raised by the participants and even connoted the same queries in his session. He then talked about the two important pillars of the proposal i.e. time budget and the financial budget which further defines the timeline of your research bifurcating the various aspects of defining the research problem, report writing, collection of data in the week module and in the financial budgeting allowing the researcher of identifying the areas of investment defining the input that need to be put into the research with the expected outcome in mind.

The speaker apprised the audience also about the bibliography and a proper amalgamation of research of all of these aspects in research with the most prominent factor of the research being the unwavering instinct of research. Post Sir's session the orator again meticulously summed all the queries which were moderated by the then anchor for the session.

The session was deeply appreciated by the attendees and faculties attending the session which was very much reflected in the post-session complements on the Google Meet Chat Room. A formal vote of thanks was then proposed by the leader for the day, Ms. Deepa Kaushik, Assistant Professor congratulating the speaker for continuing the session even with the network restraints.

Day 6 (Saturday, 16th July 2022)

Session 2

Timings: 12:00 noon – 1:30 p.m.

VALEDICTORY SESSION:

Day 6 (Saturday, 16th July 2022)
Timings: 2:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Chief Guest of the Valedictory Session: Prof.(Dr.) K. G. Suresh, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Makhanlal Chaturvedi University, Bhopal

The Valedictory Session commenced with the brief welcome of the Chief Guest by Prof. (Dr.) Deepa Sikand Kauts, Professor & Dean, School of Education, GNDU, Amritsar and Organising Secretary for the FDP. The University prayer 'Deh Shiva' was played after that, to invoke the blessings of the Almighty.

Prof. (Dr.) Amit Kauts, Project Co-ordinator, School of Education, GNDU, Amritsar apprised the Chief Guest with the proceedings of the One week FDP, highlighting the presence of eminent speakers in the FDP. It was followed by the detailed day wise report of the Faculty Development Programme by Ms. Shailja Khosla, Senior Assistant Professor, IIMT.

The next section had the reflections from the participants. Dr. Manjushree Sharma, Assistant Professor, UIAMS, Panjab University shared her learning outcomes from the very educative sessions of FDP. After her, Ms. Anukriti Gupta, Assistant Professor, School of Law, IIMT presented her take away points from the six days of learning sessions covering various topics related to NEP-2020, Use of ICT tools in teaching and advance tools and applications that can be used for advancements in the field of research.

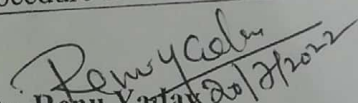

The Chief Guest, Prof. (Dr.) K. G. Suresh, Vice Chancellor, Makhanlal Chaturvedi University, Bhopal delivered the Valedictory Address. He extensively appreciated the coverage and range of the topics covered in the FDP. He was appreciative of the fact that for the first time he was witnessing the Public Private Partnership in conducting an academic event under the Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya National Mission for Teachers and Teaching. He touched upon many new tools & aspects emerging as an aftermath of COVID 19, which has helped in better delivery of lectures in classes. He advised all Higher Education Institutions to never be competitors and asked all to be collaborative to have maximum utilisation of the resources. This will not just save resources but such saved resources can be invested in newer technologies and domains. He particularly stressed that we don't have to be competitors; rather we have to be collaborators. His thoughts were in sync with the very first thought shared in FDP.

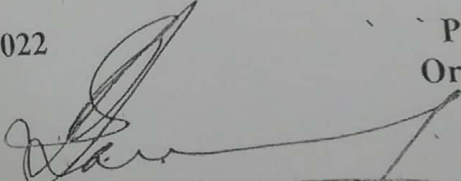

"What we now want is closer contact and better understanding between individuals and communities all over the Earth, and the elimination of egoism and pride which is always prone to plunge the world into primeval barbarism and strife..... Peace can only come as a natural consequence of Universal enlightenment." - By NIKOLA TESLA

Valedictory Address was followed by concluding remarks by Prof. (Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma, Hon'ble Director, IIMT. Thereafter, a formal Vote of Thanks was proposed by Dr. Seema Nath Jain, Principal, BBA-2nd Shift, IIMT.

After this there were commemorative group photographs, where all participants and organisers had switched on their cameras with the beaming faces of enlightened souls. To mark the end of the event National Anthem was played.

The participants had to attempt an MCQ test after the session was over as a part of the assessment procedure for securing the completion certificates of FDP.

Ministry of Education

ABOUT PMMMNMTT

The Scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching is the culmination of the Government of India efforts in launching a comprehensive umbrella scheme aimed at improving the quality of education at all levels by infusing quality and excellence in our teachers and teaching. Teachers are the backbone and the core of the education system.

With the fast pace of expansion of the education system in the country, both at school and higher education stages, improving quality has come to occupy centre stage in educational development. Needless to say, teachers hold the key for success of any effort in this direction.

With this background, Honourable Prime Minister of India launched the Scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers & Teaching on 25th December, 2014.

The Mission addresses comprehensively all issues related to teachers, teaching, teacher preparation, professional development, curriculum design, designing and developing assessment & evaluation methodology, research in pedagogy and developing effective pedagogy.

The Mission addresses, on the one hand, current and urgent issues such as supply of qualified teachers, attracting talent into teaching profession and raising the quality of teaching in schools and colleges. On the other hand, the Mission pursues the long term goals of building a strong professional cadre of teachers by setting performance standards and creating top class institutional facilities for innovative teaching and professional development of teachers.

The Mission focuses on these goals in a holistic manner dealing with the whole sector of education without fragmenting the programmes based on levels and sectors as school, higher, technical etc.

April 10th, 2023

Subject: Proposal for conducting Intra-Moot Court Competition in association with your esteemed organisation on 12th & 13th April, 2023 and Requisition for Judges in Semi Final and Final Round.

Respected Sir,

The institute cherishes its long established association with your esteemed authority and in turn have successfully attributed essential skills in our law students through various academic and practical skill development activities.

Ideal Institute of Management and Technology, a Bar Council and NAAC approved premier institute continuously engages its students for academic growth and advancement of their knowledge through various activities. The School of Law taking forward the ethos of the institute elevates students through classroom teaching and clinical education. One such attempt is through the upcoming Intra-Moot Court Competition that shall be organised by IIMT to be held at IIMT on 12th and 13th April, 2023.

Twenty teams have registered for the competition; each team shall consist of three students out of which there shall be two mooters and one researcher. Out of the twenty competing teams, four teams shall qualify for semi-final round after preliminary and quarter-final rounds. Further, two teams shall proceed for the finals. The researchers are also required to take researcher test. For smooth coordination and execution of the event, twenty coordinators and volunteers are actively working in the supervision of the faculty members.

The institute proposes to conduct this event in association with your esteemed organisation and requests you to kindly consider the same for furthering and broadening the skill sets of our law students.

We shall require resources from your esteemed organisation for a fair and quality judgment. The institute aims to have three judges (two resources preferably LAC and one Faculty, IIMT) for the semi final round, and three judges (two resources preferably Secretary level and one Faculty, IIMT) for the final round.

We further request you to kindly provide the honorarium for the semi final and final round Judges.

With this in view we request you to kindly accept our proposal and depute the resources from your esteemed association at your discretion. We shall be highly grateful.

Regards
Ideal Moot Court Society

Event Report

Name of the Activity:	Intra- Moot Court Competition, 2023
Theme of the Activity:	Moot Problem on Acid Attack
Activity Date(s):	12 th & 13 th April, 2023	No. of Participants:	70

Brief Description of the Guests/Participants(like industry experts, students, faculty etc):
 Preliminary and Quarter Round Judges:- 5th Year Students.
 Semi- Final Judges:- Mr. Manu Gupta and Ms. Sangita Rani Jain, LAC, DLSA, Shahdara
 Final Round Judges:- Mr. Pranat Kumar Joshi and Mr. Vinik Jain, Ld Secretary, DLSA, Shahdara

Brief Description of Activity:

Acid attacks are a heinous crime that has plagued societies for many years. In these attacks, the perpetrator throws corrosive substances such as acid on the victim's face or body, causing serious and often irreversible injuries. The survivors of acid attacks face physical, psychological, and social trauma that lasts a lifetime. The problem of acid attacks requires urgent attention, and one way to bring it to the forefront is through moot court competitions.

Objective: The objective of this moot court competition was to raise awareness about the problem of acid attacks and to promote legal discourse on this issue. The competition aimed to provide law students with a platform to showcase their legal skills, including research, argumentation, and advocacy, in the context of a simulated court proceeding.

The teams were judged on their legal reasoning, knowledge of the law, and advocacy skills. The judges also evaluated the teams on their ability to articulate a compelling narrative and their sensitivity to the social and cultural context of the problem of acid attacks.

Prof. (Dr.) Sheetal Chadda (Associate Professor, GIBS), 10 Faculties and 102 Students.
Brief Description of Activity:
BBA 2nd Shift organized a Guest lecture on the topic “BUSINESS MODEL CANVAS – ENTREPRENEURSHIP DEVELOPMENT” on 17th March 2023 where Prof. (Dr.) Sheetal Chadda (Associate Professor, GIBS) told students that many industries have debated on the origin of entrepreneurship. The theory has been changing throughout several decades of business growth and has received numerous definitions and characteristics from different scholars. After discussing all the available ones, it concludes that entrepreneurship is a system of operating business in which opportunities existing within the scope of a market are exploited. Entrepreneurship development is a procedure where the knowledge and skills of the entrepreneur are improved. With the help of this development program, the pace at which new ventures or businesses are created becomes a lot better than it was before the program. Entrepreneurial skills can encompass a large range of both soft and hard skills. Because of the many business roles entrepreneurs may take on, they may also develop a variety of different skillsets to accommodate the growth of their businesses and brands. Developing the following skill sets can also help you develop your entrepreneurial skills like Business Management Skill, Teamwork and Leadership Skills, Communication and Listening Skill, Customer Service Skills, Financial Skills, Analytical Skills, Critical Thinking Skills, Strategic Thinking and Planning Skills, Etc.

ABOUT PMMMNMTT

The Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching emphasises the need to change the role and working of a teacher from mere disseminator of information and knowledge to the one who advances frontiers of existing knowledge by actively developing and creating new insights into diverse social and physical phenomena.

ABOUT HANSRAJ COLLEGE

Hansraj College is one of the largest constituent colleges of University of Delhi and has been ranked as one of the top five colleges for Science, Arts and Commerce several times in the last decade. The faculty and students of the college have contributed immensely in the field of academics, sports and cultural activities. The college faculty is dedicated towards growth and development of the institution academically and administratively to constantly thrive for excellence. Hansarians have been placed in diverse professions and services worldwide and are bringing fame and laurels to the institution.

ABOUT IIMT

deal Institute of Management and Technology was established in the year 1999 under the auspices of New Millennium Education Society. The Institute is affiliated to Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Delhi and its professional courses in Law and Business Administration are recognized by Bar Council of India and Government of NCT, Delhi. Being a NAAC accredited institution, it melds state of art infrastructure with quality in education as its paramount principle. Activities held at the institute are a reflection of the quality towards perfection instilled by the founding father Late Shri Rakesh Aggarwal whose vision was to develop the Institute into a center for excellence in professional education. The aim of the Institute is to cultivate in its students' high moral standards coupled with academic excellence to promote market-oriented skill development and upgradation that would help in serving the needs of the society. From its advent, the Institution has acquired a credible position in the fields of Law, Business Administration topped with Computer Aided Management and conducts BA.LLB, BBA and BBA (CAM) programmes. It has been nurturing pioneers and forerunners in these fields who have continually attained highly reputable careers as judicial officers, civil servants, advocates, academicians, managers, and professionals in the industry.

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Faculty development programme (FDP) is a tool for fostering knowledge and professional skills of faculty members in order to improve their performance in education, research and administration as well as augmenting organisational capacities and culture. Such programmes not only help the faculty members in augmenting their instructional capabilities in contemporary educational pedagogy but also in their professional development with better understanding of professional responsibilities as educators, researchers and administrators as well as in the organisational development with respect to the requirements and main concerns of an institution. FDPs are also useful for career and personal development of the faculty members which emphasises upon life planning, interpersonal and communication skills of faculty members.

This programme is specifically designed to discuss, deliberate and come up with use of technological advancements in Education, Management & Law. The early-career researchers, academicians, legal experts, and other participants will have a great opportunity to learn from the esteemed panel of experts who shall be delivering expert talks on various topical issues related to application of emerging technologies in andragogy and research.

The purpose of this programme is to provide an opportunity for distinguished scholars/ researchers/teachers in India to engage with the young faculty members and share their experiences and perspectives relating to newer methods and techniques used in teaching and research with the help of upcoming technologies. The focus of the FDP shall also be the deliberation on the impact of these technologies on academia while identifying the gaps and suggesting future reforms therein.

OBJECTIVES

- To provide an understanding about application of technological advancements in teaching-learning methods & research in Management, IT & Law.
- To acquaint the participants with the jurisprudential dimensions of Law, Management and Technology, Internet of Things (IoT), Crypto-currency, Cyber Security, Bigdata Analytics, Block Chain, & Affiliate Marketing, etc.
- To train the early career researchers, young academicians, and other participants in development of e-content for teaching and research and competency enhancement with the help of e-resources.
- To provide in-depth understanding about teaching pedagogy in hybrid mode and use of technology therein.
- To provide an opportunity to participants to deliberate and learn about the challenges being faced in education and research in the present digital era in terms of cyber security in academia and innovation, incubation, startups and research challenges in India.

SUB-THEMES

Law & Digital Technologies:

- Piracy & Cyber Spaces

Summary Report of One Week (Online) Faculty Development Programme

The Ideal Institute of Management and Technology, Delhi has organised the One-Week Faculty Development Programme on the theme “International Interdisciplinary Sustainable Strategies and Reflections in Law, Management and Information Technology in the Digital Era” from 24th July – 30th July, 2023 in collaboration with Mahatma Hansraj Faculty Development Centre of Hansraj College, University of Delhi. (A Centre of Ministry of Education, Government of India, under Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching)

The programme was designed as a structured training programme targeted at members of the faculties of Law, Management and Information Technology across the nation. The programme has been conducted to promote facilitation of new and novel trends in sustainable practices and reflections in the digital era. The inter-disciplinary approach of the FDP helped the organizers in inviting key academicians from all the three focal areas. The One week Programme was very meticulously divided into 2 sessions each day – the first session from 1 pm to 2.30 pm and the second session from 2.45 pm to 4.30 pm. Each session started with welcome of the participants by the anchor , followed by the Welcome Address and felicitation of the keynote speaker. After the presentation , the Speaker answered to the queries raised by participants .Each Session ended with the Vote of Thanks and the Patriotic Song.

The Faculty Development Programme started on 24th July, 2023 at 1.00 pm with Saraswati Vandana, followed by a small Inaugural Address by the Chief Guest, Prof.(Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma. The Inauguration of the FDP was followed by the first session by the eminent speaker, Prof.(Dr.) Anil Parkash Sharma, Director, Ideal Institute of Management & Technology. Prof. Sharma chose the topic 'Sustainable Development in Organization Through Personal Branding' for the opening session of the FDP. The speaker started his discussion with some practical examples to make the meaning of Personal Branding clear . He discussed the importance of Personal Branding and its relationship with Sustainable Development in organizations by connecting it to the organization's sustainability practices, that helps in building trust and credibility for the employees and also makes the employees more confident and competent. Building a Personal Brand that aligns with sustainable values and strategies of the organisation helps in creating a compelling personal brand statement .He stressed upon the importance of Communication as a vital tool for the sustainability in personal branding. He presented some actionable steps and tools for employees and leaders to integrate personal branding with sustainable efforts of the organization..

The second session of the first day was taken by Prof. (Dr.) Komal Vig, Dean, Sharda University, She shared her views on the topic . "Legal Aspect : Sustainable Development In The Era Of Digitalization" . She initiated her address by explaining the concept of sustainable development along with the parameters of determining urgent needs of humanity, awareness of the limited natural resources and the objective impossibility of the environment to satisfy the ever increasing demands of humanity. She laid emphasis on legal recognition of sustainable development with respect to the philosophy of consumption.

She shared her views on how the laws can play a crucial role in implementing and achieving sustainable development goals and gave several examples related to Land use and planning laws, Laws related to Climate change, corporate Sustainability Reporting, Renewable Energy Standards, Sustainable Agriculture and Food Safety, Water management laws, Indigenous Rights and Environmental Justice, Waste Management Regulations and several other Laws and regulations that provide the framework for defining, promoting and enforcing sustainable practices across various sectors of society. She also briefly touched upon the laws related to Cybersecurity, Data privacy, Intellectual Property rights, E commerce & Consumer protection, Digital Identity and Net Neutrality .

The second day of FDP , 25th July , 2023, started with the session by Prof. (Dr.) Achal Kaushik, Professor and Head (CSE), Bhagwan Parshuram Institute of Technology. He shared his views on the topic, “ Role of Information and Communication Technology (ICT), Augmented Reality (AR), Virtual Reality (VR) in Intelligent and Sustainable Manufacturing”. The session was started by extensively explaining the different stages of Industrial Revolution and the transformation from mechanical to electrical to internet to digital (the current stage) to make the gathering understand the multi-fold effect that it has brought in the present day environment. He apprised the audience about the concept of ‘Intelligent and Sustainable Manufacturing’, and the way the same can be achieved by the amalgamation of advanced technologies and systems to enable smarter operations. Prof. Kaushik prominently brought forth the ‘Blockchain Technology’ to be a perfect example of the way advancement has fostered the space encompassing transparency and traceability. He discussed about the positive role of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in using advanced analytics to identify patterns, optimize processes, and make data-driven decisions for better allocation and improved efficiency and quality .He gave the example of the use of Autonomous Guided Vehicles (AGVs) used in manufacturing and warehousing for material handling, being used to enhance the overall logistics. He explained in detail the changes brought by Virtual Reality (VR), Augmented Reality (AR), Mixed Reality (MR), and Extended Reality (XR) in the manufacturing process and how this has brought several benefits, such as faster on-boarding and reduced errors on the production floor. He also discussed the various issues and challenges brought forth by the recent trends . He specifically highlighted the requirement of research in the area of human-robot collaboration, and implementation of smart factory layouts.

The second session on Day 2 of FDP was taken by Prof. Monika Aggarwal, Professor, University Institute of Applied Sciences, Panjab University, Chandigarh. She deliberated on the Topic: Application of Bibliometric Methods in Management. The hon'ble speaker commenced by extensively explaining the importance of systematic 'Literature Review', and how if done properly it can contribute towards high quality of research. Professor further appraised the gathering about the way statistical analysis of bibliographic data commonly focuses on citation analysis of research output and publications which essentially aid in giving quantitative analysis of academic literature. Prof. Aggarwal extensively discussed the appropriate manner of searching on 'Scopus', and while doing so gave extensive insights, such as the importance of using appropriate quotation marks, and keywords. Thereafter, the speaker took the gathering on a virtual demonstration for advanced study of the process of searching. The interactive hands-on-training comprised of showcasing and discussing the document results in case of general as well as advanced queries. She also delivered a hands-on-training on VOSviewer Software. The mode used aided in better understanding of the collaborative efforts that can be made because of the data retrieved by using network, overlay and density visualisation, and the simultaneous practice of the usage surely enhanced the learning experience.

The third day of the FDP on 26th July, 2023 started with the session by Prof. Rajesh Kumar Tiwari, Principal, RVS College of Engineering And Technology, Jharkhand who shared his views on the topic "Big Data Analytics" . Prof. Tiwari initiated his session by emphasizing on the importance of Data Analytics in present world. He explained the concept of Data, types of Data like Relational Data, Text Data, Graph Data, etc. by quoting the real life examples, how data can be processed by using statistical tools to get the information which can finally produce knowledge. He further shared sources of data collection and challenges in extracting data due to its volume, variety and complexities. He also summarized SQL Vs NoSQL skill for Data science and popular structured and unstructured Databases. The collected data needs to be cut, pruned, and filtered so that merged data from multiple sources can be loaded into dimensional modeled tables.

He concluded his discussion by stressing on the usefulness of big data not only in the field of IT and Management but also in Law, as legal data is huge and thus needs to be simplified which can be done by making use of Data Analytics.

The second session of the day was taken by Prof. (Dr.) Seema Yadav, Professor, Galgotia University, Greater Noida who presented her insights on the Topic: "Aligning Corporate Laws with sustainable Development Goals". She initiated her session with explaining the concept of Sustainable Development, which focuses on economic development without compromising the quality of environment for future generations. She elaborated in detail about the 17 SDG's laid down by the United Nations 169 specific targets to be achieved by 2030. She also discussed about the legislations related to SDG's, including the concept of Corporate Social responsibility, which has been positioned in Schedule VII of Companies Act, 2013. She further discussed the concept of Corporate Governance which includes 3 important P's; People, Planet and Profit. BRR, BSRs based on ESG (Environmental, Social, Governance) is mandatory for companies for sustainable Development. She concluded her discussion by drawing the attention of the audience on the challenges in achieving SDG's like Limited Availability of NGO's in India, lack of collaborative efforts for CSR activities, lack of transparency in CSR initiatives, etc. She stressed on the need to align the CSR strategy with UN Sustainable Practices to achieve the SDGs by 2030.

The first session of Day 4 on 27th July, 2023 started with deliberations by Prof. (Dr.) Anuj Kumar Vaksha, Professor, Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Dwarka on the Topic: Law And Digital Technologies: Piracy And Cyber Spaces. He started his session by extensively explaining the importance of Piracy and Cyber Space with its 3 key ingredients: Law, Piracy/Counterfeit and Digital Technologies and Cyber Spaces. Prof. Vaksha extensively discussed the difference between Piracy and Counterfeiting in relation to Intellectual Property Rights in which piracy is an unauthorised copying, use, reproduction, distribution of materials protected whereas counterfeiting is the manufacture, importation, distribution and sale of goods which falsely carry the trademark of a genuine brand without permission and for gain or loss to another. He further demonstrated the remedies for the infringement of copyright which are given under Sections 55, 58 and 62 covering Civil remedies and Sections 63, 63 B, 65, 65 A, 65 B, 67, 68, 69 covering Criminal Remedies. The speaker also urged the audience to read the offences very carefully so that there shall not be any infringement of rights of others.

The second session of Day 4 was taken by : Mr. Arun Kumar, General Manager – HR & EMS, Caesalpin Private Limited, Delhi, who shared his experiential knowledge on the Topic: Sustainable Development through Green Technology. Mr. Arun started the session by extensively explaining the importance of green technology which is a system that uses innovative methods to create environmental friendly products. He further apprised the gathering about the goals of Green Technology – the five R's- Refuse, Reduce, Reuse, Repurpose and Recycle .He extensively discussed the Green Chemistry coined by Paul Anastas in 1991 and he also called this as sustainable chemistry. He further apprised the Supercritical carbon dioxide which is used to remove organichloride pesticides from agricultural crops without adulterating the desired constituents from the plant matter in the herbal supplement industry. He further explained the concept of Geo thermal Energy .Green IT starts with manufacturers producing environmentally friendly products and encouraging IT departments to consider more friendly options like virtualization, power management and proper recycling habits. He further demonstrated the use of Green Technology in construction of buildings and showed the examples of famous green buildings of the World like Bahrain World Trade Centre, Manama, Skyscraper farming, National Library, Singapore, Residence Antilia, Mumbai and India Tower, Mumbai.

The first session on Day 5 was taken by Prof.(Dr.) Zahir uddin Arif, Professor & Former Chairman, Deptt. Of Marketing, Faculty of Business studies, Jagannath University, Bangladesh on the topic, “ Case Study Development & writing in Management Discipline”.

He started his session with discussion on different types of cases and their relevance in education and research . He shared the top tips for writing a case study including collecting information from primary & secondary sources, structure the narrative, identify & develop the protagonist(i.e main character/hero), get permission, be clear about your teaching objective , identify the case lead author if writing along with your colleague, He very immaculately differentiated between Teaching cases and research focussed cases and then proceeded to share the step by step guide to writing an effective case study. He guided about various international journals where the case studies can be published
